

Grand Clearing-Out —OF— WRAPS —AT— CRAWFORD'S.

"A contented mind is a continual feast." And if you ever want to be contented it is when you are traveling. Two elements contribute largely to this result—one is a traveling wrap to relieve your mind of all care of your dress, another is the conviction that you got the wrap "at a bargain" and can afford to spoil it if you want to.

They Have Them at CRAWFORD'S.

Silk Peasants at $11; regular $15 garment.

Light-weight Cloth Peasants in a variety of shades, with braided yokes, for $7.50.

Same with shirred yokes, $9.

Mohair Wraps for $5.

Linen Traveling Dusters from 65c up.

Now for Jackets.

Imported Directoires with Moire Vests or in plain or braided styles, from $5 up to $6.50; just one-third of manufacturer's price.

Summer weight Tailor-made Jackets in all the latest styles, from $2.50 up to $5.

A few of our Satin-Stripe Diagonal Jackets, $10.50 quality, closing out at $6.50.

The finest Black Stockinette Jackets ever sold in St. Louis for the price—$5.

Beaded Wraps at half-price.

Only a few in stock of these marvelously cheap and very handsomely jetted Wraps for $2.50.

Another small importation just received of that elegant line of heavily fringed, all over beaded Wraps on which we had such a run last week; the same price, $4.

HAVE YOU SEEN OUR JERSEYS?

Cream Jerseys, cashmere finish, with plaited fronts or tinsel trimming, for 75c.

Cream Jerseys, cashmere finish, with smocked fronts, for $1.

Elegant All-Wool Cashmere Cream Jerseys, in plain styles, $1.50.

All-Wool Cashmere Green Jerseys, with smocked vests of surah silk, for $3; regular $4 Jerseys.

Smocked and Plaited Front Jerseys in black and colors; a great variety of styles at lowest prices.

$7.50 and $8.50 lines of Black Silk Jerseys, finest quality, closing out at $5.75 and $6.75.

DOMESTICS!

Not wet, but dry, clean and fresh, and warranted below wet goods prices.

5 bales Indian Head 7-8 wide Unbleached Sheet.

Reduced to 5c a yard

5 bales 4-4 wide heavy Unbleached Sheet..... Reduced to 5c a yard

3 bales 4-4 fine Sea Island Unbleached Muslin..... Reduced to 6-1-2c a yard

10 cases Fruit of the Loom Bleached Shirring Muslin,

Reduced to 7-1-2c a yard

2 cases 46 inches wide Langdon G. B. finest Bleached Pillow Cotton.

Reduced to 12-1-2c a yard

3 cases 9-4 good Unbleached Sheet..... Reduced to 16-2-8c

5 cases good Unbleached Cotton Flannel..... Reduced to 5c a yard

5 cases good heavy Unbleached Cotton Flannel..... Reduced to 6-1-2c a yard

GLOVES!

200 dozen Ladies' fine quality Black and Colored Jersey-top Taffeta Silk Gloves..... 25c a pair Ladies' all silk, in black and colors, Jersey-top Gloves, fast colors.

Only 85c a pair

Ladies' 4-button Tan Undressed Kid Gloves, all sizes..... 50c a pair

Not by "Spurts" does CRAWFORD'S win, but by a straight-along, steady course that shows the observing public just where it pays to place its money.

PARASOLS

22-inch Satin, all colors, in stripes and plaids, La Tossa handles, $2.15; reduced from $3.65.

22-inch Satins, all colors, in large checks and broken plaids, fancy handles, $1.70; reduced from $2.75.

24-inch Double-Twill All-Silk, Paragon frame, with long adjustable handles in crooks and balls; price, $2.25; reduced from $3.25.

24-inch Gloria Silk, best quality and rib Paragon frame, sticks of ebony and antique oak, mounted with silver chains and fancy balls; price, $2.25; reduced from $3.50.

26-inch Satin de Chine, fast color, Paragon frame, 18-inch silver handles, cases and tassels; price, $2.75; reduced from $4.50.

24-inch Gloria Silk, best quality, stitched with silk, Paragon frame, silver and gold heads; price, $1.30; reduced from $2.75.

Embroideries

COLORED DRESS GOODS

At 7-1-2c, 50 pieces fancy half-width Serges, in pretty spring shades, made to sell for 15c.

At 10c, 43 pieces English mixed Tweed Suiting in stripes, checks and melange effects, colors tan, grey, beige and brown in several shades; cost to import, 17-1-2c.

At 12-1-2c, 32 pieces French Plaid Organdie, in cream grounds, all new stylish designs and fast colors; well worth 20c.

At 15c, 85 pieces printed Ceylon Mulls, the prettiest and most desirable summer fabric in the market; colors are fast and the designs cannot be duplicated in any other goods; in St. Louis; real value of these goods is 25c.

At 17-1-2c, 52 pieces yard-wide English Belair Foule Suiting, with side bands, especially adapted for traveling wear; regular price 25c.

At 20c, 53 pieces French Lace Effect Lena Cloth, one of the latest novelties in summer wash fabrics, fast colors and an endless variety of patterns; sold elsewhere at 25c.

At 25c, 2 more cases of those beautiful genuine French Chalilles in all the most stylish colorings; sold elsewhere at 35c.

At 35c, 30 pieces pure silk and wool French Sicilian Suiting, in plain and brocade, a very stylish and serviceable fabric, well worth 60c.

At 40c, 40 pieces 30-inch all-wool French Tamise Cloth, summer weight, in cream, tan, mahogany and navy grounds, with graduated stripes in contrasting shades, one of the nobbiest fabrics shown this season and well worth 60c.

At 50c, 30 pieces 42-inch silk and wool French Bordure Suiting in all the most stylish shades of the season. This line includes goods which sold early in the season at $1 to $1.75 per yard, and we guarantee that for genuine value it gets away with anything ever shown in this market.

WASH GOODS.

SATEEN, PRINTS AND GINGHAM.

SATEEN.

At 15c a yard. Crawford's own special make of English Sateen, designs exclusively our own, equal to any sold elsewhere at 25c a yard.

At 20c a yard. 71 pieces of French Sateens in good choice styles, goods that are sold elsewhere at 25c and 30c a yard.

DRESS GINGHAM.

At 4-1-2c a yard. Light, plain-colored Pongee Dress Gingham; the price is just half their value.

At 7-1-2c a yard. An elegant assortment of Dress Gingham in plaids and stripes, perfectly fast colors, and would be cheap to sell at 10c a yard.

At 8-1-3c a yard. A line of fine Dress Gingham in light blue stripes and plaids, warranted fast colors, good value at 12-1-2c a yard.

Also the best assorted stock of satin print, navy and China blue Penangs, all of the best makes, colors warranted fast, prices from 7-1-2c to 12-1-2c a yard.

IMPORTED DRESS GINGHAM.

An elegant line of Broche Lace Striped Dress Gingham, finest imported goods made, which we are offering at 35c a yard; sold elsewhere at 50c and 60c a yard.

See 2-1/2c and 5c Remnant Boxes on counter. Goods worth 5c and 7-1/2c go at 2-1/2c; goods worth 10c, 12-1/2c and 15c go at 5c a yd.

We have a few remnants of 45-inch Colored Skirtings in ecru, brown and light blue; they are worth $2.00 and $2.50 a yd; will be given away at 25c a yd.

Book and Stationery Department.

The June number of "Belford's Magazine" is more attractive than ever. Besides a complete novel, "A Vagabond's Honor," by E. De Laney Pierson, there are short stories, poems, etc., by popular writers, price 25c.

LADIES' Muslim Underwear

Black & Mourning DRESS GOODS.

The Largest and Best Assorted Stock in the City. Prices Always the Lowest.

At 7-1-2c. 1 case Striped Etamine, all-wool filling; never sold before in this city for less than 12-1-2c.

At 10c. 1 case Checked Armures, beautiful goods, light weight; regular price, 15c.

At 12-1-2c. 1 case 32-inch Solid Black and Pin Check Organdy, extra fine, good blacks; well worth 20c.

At 15c. 1 case Satin Check Organdy, every size and variety of check; very rich and handsome; sold everywhere else at 25c.

At 22-1-2c. 1 case 38-inch Blue Black Henriettes; our regular 85c goods, which we will let go at above price.

At 25c. 1 case All-Wool Lace Bengaline, the coolest and most serviceable fabric in the market for summer wear; cannot be bought anywhere else.

At 35c. 1 case 38-inch Henriettes, splendid black, fine finish; a great bargain.

At 50c. Your choice of 200 pieces 40-inch All-Wool Bengaline, Chalilles, Nun's Veiling and Camel's-Hair Grenadines, regular 65c goods, which we will sacrifice at the above price.

At 65c. 10 pieces 45-inch All-Wool Chalilles, just imported, regular 85c goods, will close out at the above price.

At 67-1-2c. 75 pieces 40-inch All-Wool Silk-Finish Henriettes, extra fine, cut from 90c.

The finest assortment and largest stock of Mohair Brilliantines and Sicilians to be found in the city at prices that cannot be equaled anywhere.

WHITE GOODS

1 case sheer Nainsook Checks, fine quality, worth 7-1-2c a yd, at 5c.

50 pieces fine India Linen Plaids satin finish, worth 15c, at 12-1-2c.

25 pieces imported Lace Stripe Pique, worth 25c, at 17-1-2c.

1 case Sheer Satin Stripes, worth 20c, at 12-1-2c.

1,000 yds imported plain English Nainsook, at 10c, 12-1-2c, 15c, 20c, 25c and 30c.

FLANNELS!

1 case Summer Shirting Flannel, worth 30c, at 20c.

5,000 yds 32-inch Scotch Shirting Flannels, worth 45c, at 35c.

500 yds 38-inch Silk Stripes, worth 85c, at 65c.

N. B.—50 dozen Spring Skirts at 40c, 50c, 60c and 75c.

THE CHEAPEST Lace Curtains IN THE CITY ARE AT CRAWFORD'S.

D. Crawford & Co. will sell you a splendid Nottingham Wash Lace Curtain, 4 yards long, at $1.85, never sold for less than $2.75 a pair.

We have a Nottingham Lace Curtain, 4 yards long, beautiful design, at $2.25, worth $3.50 per pair.

3 cases ecru and figured Scrims, all new patterns, at reduced prices.

200 pair Brussels Lace Curtains, at $4.50 per pair; worth $6.00.

36 pair Irish Point Curtains, 3 1-2 yards long, very rich designs, at $6.75 per pair; worth $9.50.

22 pieces assorted colors Silk Plush, 24 inches wide, at $1.25 per yard; worth $1.75.

6 doz elegant Silk Plush Table Scarfs, at $3; price elsewhere $4.50 each.

2 cases new Cretonnes, elegant designs, at 10c per yard; would be cheap at 12-1-2c.

5,000 Holland window shades, assorted colors, 3x6 feet, on spring rollers, at 25c each.

Choice line Upholstery China Silks, 32 inches wide, at 75c per yard; price elsewhere 95c.

2,500 Opaque window shades, in plain and dados, on best spring rollers, at bottom prices.

Double-face Cotton Plushes, extra quality, a choice line, at 25c per yard.

Soap and Perfumery DEPARTMENT.

Cocoanut Oil Soap, 2 1-2c a cake or 25c a doz.

White Glycerine Soap, 6 1-4c a cake.

Graham's Mecca Toilet Soap, 6 1-4c a cake.

Graham's Eidelweiss Toilet Soap, 6 1-4c a cake.

Lavender Water Soap, 15c a cake.

Juvenile Soap, 15c a cake.

Camelia Bouquet Soap, 15c a cake.

Florida Water Soap, 15c a cake.

HUNGER'S PANGS

Add to the Suffering of the Survivors in the Deluged Conemaugh Valley.

The Supply of Bread Exhausted and Provisions of All Kinds Scarce.

Gov. Beaver Roundly Denounced for His Alleged Neglect by the Pittsburg Press.

Responsibility for the Disaster Laid at the Door of the South Fork Club.

Five Acres of Debris Still Jammed About the Stone Bridge at Johnstown—Thousands of Men Employed in Clearing Away the Wreckage—Effective Use of Dynamite—The Work Will Be Continued To-Day—Bodies Recovered Yesterday—List of the Identified Dead—An Engineer's Opinion of the Construction of the Dam at South Fork—Sympathy for the Sufferers Expresses in England—Florence Nightingale's Message—Destructive Floods in the Beautiful Junius Valley—Villages Scoured and Farm Houses Swept Away—Contributions Sent from Various Points—Manager Abbey's Scheme in London—Belle Measures.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 8.—There has been a great scarcity of staple provisions during the past twenty-four hours, and as a consequence suffering prevails. Since yesterday morning the majority of the people have subsisted on cheese and black coffee. The supply of bread was entirely exhausted. This is a result of statements made by uninformed people and newspapers that there was a glut of provisions and that much was being wasted. So far as the distribution of goods was concerned, that was not true at any time. During the early part of the week many cars could not be unloaded because there was no place to deposit the provisions. The people of Johnstown are in need, those whose homes were not touched by the flood as well as the survivors. All the businesses houses were washed away, and there is no place to purchase any provisions. Those who did not suffer immediate loss by the flood are in almost as bad straits, so far as obtaining any provisions is concerned, as those who lost everything.

The work of relief must not stop. Johnstown is in need and it will be weeks, probably months, before her citizens can stand alone.

A GLOOMY MORNING.

The day opened with a heavy rain and thunder storm. The hillsides streams are running full and overflowing out from the valley. The continued falling of the rain renders the removal of the debris every day more arduous, and where a few days ago the timbers, when loosened, would float, now they have to be moved by hand, this of necessity making the work very slow.

FIXING THE RESPONSIBILITY.

The entire blame of the calamity has been placed upon the South Fork Hunting & Fishing Club. The Coroner's jury, that has been in session at Nineveh, terminated its labors yesterday afternoon, and the verdict has been fully prepared, only lacking the signatures of the jurors before being given publicly. It is understood, the jury declares the Executive Committee of the South Fork Club is to be held responsible for the negligence. Some of the people in the vicinity are so much incensed that apprehension is expressed for the safety of W. S. Boyer, Superintendent of the cottages on the lake. Already some of the villas have been broken into and the furniture demolished. Boats have been taken in broad daylight and reduced to kindling wood by infuriated crowds.

Gov. Beaver Denounced.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 8.—It is nearly all the Pittsburg papers to-day denounce Gov. Beaver for his course since the flood. In some quarters it is intimated that the Governor appears too anxious to relieve the people of Johnstown and Williamsport and along the Susquehanna Valley in the vicinity of his own home, where there was comparatively little loss of life, to the detriment of the poor unfortunate of Johnstown. The Pittsburg Post-Dispatch, the Evening Star, the Mayor of Pittsburgh and Allegheny to call a mass-meeting for Monday morning to call upon Gov. Beaver to at once convene the Legislature in extra session so that the more personal benefit of the Johnstown survivors may be appropriated. It is said that the entire amount of the money sent to Johnstown is being utilized in the noble work of removing the debris. But survivors are so far limited to money and clothing.

The relief committees of Pittsburg and Chicago are to Johnstown at least twice to-night and it is to call a mass-meeting of the Governor at Johnstown to-morrow. Capt. Barney Aaron of the militia, who has had charge of the survivors at Johnstown, a suburb of Johnstown, and who returned to Pittsburg to-night, says in doses of instances upon opening up cases of clothing prohibition that the Antis are to be concerned in this. The Antis will make much capital out of this.

Dr. Benjamin Lee of the State Board of Health has an official statement this afternoon to the effect that there is no disease in a mild form. The supply of dynamite has been stopped and the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. refused to let the Pennsylvania State Fire Commissioner, the Governor, and the Leader say he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

The state rail road at Roxham, just out of Johnstown, will resume Monday. The number of dead employees will be first learned at that time.

The Dispatch says editorially that the Governor has proved himself unequal to great responsibility and incapable of acting in the interest of the state. The Governor, and the Leader says he is a wooden head. The Leader editorially says to a communication from Mayor Grant of New York, notifying him that the large relief funds subscribed in the metropolis were to be immediately sent to Johnstown, that the honor and credit of Pennsylvania required him to reject New York's offer. The Leader also says that the amount of the home had been expended. This, too, in view of the fact that the temporary authorities of the state had not yet been established.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch,
PUBLISHED BY THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.,
JOSEPH PULITZER, President.

TERMS OF THE DAILY.
One year, postage paid, every afternoon and Sunday morning..... $10.00
Six months..... 5.00
Three months..... 3.00
By the week (delivered by carrier)..... 2.00
Sunday edition, by mail, per year..... 2.00
Subscriptions will fail to receive the paper regularly will receive a taper upon it by reporting the same to this office by post card.

All business or news letters or telegrams should be addressed

POST-DISPATCH,
518 Olive street.

POSTAGE.

Entered at the Post-office, St. Louis, Mo., as second-class matter.

POSTAGE. Per Copy.
Eight to sixteen pages..... 1 Cent
Eighteen to thirty-two pages..... 2 Cents

FOREIGN..... 1 Cent

Sunday Post-Dispatch..... 3 Cents

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

Editorial Rooms..... 285
Business Office..... 284

London Office, 22 Coopers Street, Charing Cross.

TWENTY-EIGHT PAGES

SUNDAY, JUNE 9, 1889.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscribers receiving the POST-DISPATCH by carrier will confer a favor by reporting to this office any delay, irregularity, or failure in the delivery of the paper.

The indications for to-day for Missouri are: Rain, followed in western portion by fair weather; slightly cooler; winds becoming northerly.

CONTENTS OF TO-DAY'S PAPER.

HUNGER RAMPANT AT JOHNSTOWN.

Interesting Testimony at the Cronin Inquest.

GLADSTONE'S CAMPAIGN.

Italy's Bad Condition and Her High Taxes.

WHAT IS HYPNOTISM?

The Hygienic Aspect of Rural Life.

PAGE 1—CRAWFORD'S ADVERTISEMENT.

PAGE 2—THE JOHNSTOWN Disaster—Hunger—Famine—Gov. Beaser Said to be Unequal to the Emergency—The Measures of Relief.

PAGE 3—JOHNSTOWN'S FLOODS, Continued—The Seattle Fire in Disguise to That City—General News.

PAGE 4—EDITORIAL—Answers to Correspondents—The Cronin Inquest—General News.

PAGE 5—FOREIGN NEWS—Gladstone's Vigorous Campaign in the West of England—Italy's Condition—The Eagle Tax—Mrs. Maynard to Be Tried—Her Life—Switzerland—Rebuked by Mrs. Chamberlain—Americans—The Thibetan War—Editor Halsdean—Executions in Cuba—Death of Leonard Swett—Obituaries—Washington News—Young Bessell's Detention by the German Government—A Treaty Violation—General Telegraph—Death Notices.

PAGE 6—CRIENTRAL NEWS—From the Grave in Chillicothe, Mo.—An Indian Negroe—General Crisis—Casualties—An Ill-fated Southern Family—Labor News—A Confidence Game and a Farmer—Suicides—General Telegraph.

PAGE 7—SOME FAMOUS WEDDING Cakes—The Weather—Paris News and Gossip—General Telegraph.

PAGE 8—BASE BALL NEWS—The Browns Forfeit a Game—A Fatal Street Fight—A Young Murder—General Telegraph.

PAGE 9—THE BROTHERS' PICNIC—East St. Louis and Belleville—The Northern and Midland Railroads—Cutting—Railroad News—A Mother's Love—Lightning Destroys 300 Telegraph Wires—Weather Crop Bulletin—Litigation—General Telegraph.

PAGE 10—REAL ESTATE NEWS and Transfers—A Strange Case of Disease—L. W. Blanks Elected to the House of Delegates—The Public Library Board—Medical Society Meeting—The Big Elevator Consolidation Closed—The Coming Examination for the Annapolis Graduation—General Telegraph.

PAGE 11—THE CITY JURY CENSUS Completed—The Jasper County Mines—Barz's Advertisement.

PAGE 12—WANT ADVERTISEMENTS—Real Estate Advertisements.

PAGE 13—REAL ESTATE ADVERTISEMENTS.

PAGE 15—WARFARE AGAINST NEBRASKA Outlaws—Americans in Mexico—The Crop Outlook—Must-Hall Concerts—General Telegraph.

PAGE 16—GENERAL SPORTING NEWS—Notables in To-Day's Games—The Wheel—Pistol Practice—Carolines Jottings—Betting on the Races—Turf News—General Telegraph.

PAGE 17—MILL NYE AS a Press Agent—Mrs. Tanner of the Post-Advertiser—The Harrison Administration—What Is Hypnotism—Its Mysteries Disclosed—The Pretty Maid of Kinslumne by V. Weston—Private Cattle Care.

PAGE 18—GOSSIP FROM GOTHAM—Father Walsh's Jubilee—Local Religious News—Preparing for the Exposition—The City's Best Inspection—Mining News—Local and General—The New Masonic Home—Dr. Cox of Springfield, Dead—Changes in Postal Rules—An Amazing Find Between Two Schools.

PAGE 19—THE NEW YORK AND Commercial News—The New York Post—Officer An Amorous Companion—Gas Subs—A Minnesota School Senator.

PAGE 20—HOW TO KEEP ROY CHEEK Told About by Harriet Prescott Spofford—How St. George Became England's Saint—Tennis and Athletic Costumes—The Swift Flight of Wild Ducks—Witches and Witchcraft—Dyspepsia, the Hot Water Treatment—The Big Brooklyn Bridge.

PAGE 21—SPLENDOR and Wealth of the Rajah of Jaipur—What Tales Are Doctored—Going to the Country, Some Tasty Hints—The New Orleans Water Famine.

PAGE 22—BOOKS and Book News—Summer Allments of Children—Life in the Harem.

PAGE 23—NEW OUTING GOWNS—Society Gossip—Ladies Who Eat at the Races—Taking Baby's Picture—Births—Deaths.

PAGE 24—DRAMATIC NEWS, Local and General—The New York Drama—Theatrical Short-Hand—Our National Flower—The True American Women in Portugal—The Tiniest Shoes Worn by St. Louis Ladies—A Hindu Deputation in New York.

PAGE 25—“A CORNER IN SHAWNEE,” by Henry Clews.

PAGE 26—GREAT CATASTROPHES The World Has Known—A Ratiocine Study by Cyrus Crimie—General Miscellany.

PAGE 27—MURDER IN POLITICS: Its Historical Aspect—The Heavens in June—Some Famous Singers—Our Neighbors.

PAGE 28—SECRET SOCIETIES—

The greatest carnival of fire ever seen will take place in St. Louis next fall. But the damage will be paid for in advance, and it will only furnish a gorgeous spectacle for thousands of people.

The dispatches from Washington prove that no amount of cold water can dampen the ardor of the Missourians. They are still pushing their claims in the mud and slime of the Potomac around the White House.

The entertainment provided for the Shah of Persia by the Emperor of Germany consists of a banquet, an operatic performance, an artillery review, and a ballet. The Shah will have reached the height of modern civilization when the Emperor gets through with him.

THE greatest carnival of fire ever seen will take place in St. Louis next fall. But the damage will be paid for in advance, and it will only furnish a gorgeous spectacle for thousands of people.

The dispatches from Washington prove that no amount of cold water can dampen the ardor of the Missourians. They are still pushing their claims in the mud and slime of the Potomac around the White House.

THE entertainment provided for the Shah of Persia by the Emperor of Germany consists of a banquet, an operatic performance, an artillery review, and a ballet. The Shah will have reached the height of modern civilization when the Emperor gets through with him.

THE aim of the Boulangerists, according to NAQUET, the diminutive leader of the party, is to Americanize France. And the people are going about it, according to reports, by trying to get as many American dollars into French pocketbooks as possible while the Exposition lasts.

THE statute enacted by the Missouri Legislature for the alleged purpose of preventing the formation of trusts, pools and price-fixing combinations generally is apparently producing large results. The great white lead combine and the consolidation of eighteen St. Louis breweries under one management are its first fruits.

“AMERICANIZE” is the watchword of the Boulangerists according to NAQUET. Their worship of a flashy leader who travels openly with a mistress and an extravagant retinue, on means obtained no one knows how, affords but slight ground for a hope that they will succeed in Americanizing either their government or themselves.

WHO is there that is not thrilled and stimulated into finer manhood and womanhood by the recital of the generous and courageous acts of men and women who were parts of the terrible drama? The unknown man who rode down the Conemaugh turnpike warning the people and who was overwhelmed in the flood; the brave Mrs. OGLE who stayed at her telegraph key signaling the danger to all stations in the valley until she signed her own death warrant in the words: “This is my last message;” the courageous girl operator at Johnstown who ticked off the incidents of the flood until the waters swept her to death closed the circuit; the hundreds of men and women who died that others might live—all are heroes and give renewed inspiration to the human race.

SCIENCE is already alert and is ready to study the best means of averting such catastrophes in future by the light of this experience. And finally the spectacle of the whole civilized world responding generously to the cry for help which comes from the devastated district is worth living for.

The lessons and benefits of the flood have been gained at fearful cost, but the gloom is dissipating in the light of finer impulses, broader sympathies and clearer knowledge.

This is the law of progress.

SAVE THE PARK.

IT is not alone those who have built costly residences or who have invested large amounts in improved lots for sale to builders of such residences in the Forest Park neighborhood, who have a right to complain of a business intrusion which will put a blight upon the whole vicinity and destroy the chief value of that park to the people of St. Louis.

AS FULLER details of the conflagration at Seattle place the loss of property at a lower figure than was expected and fortunately warrant the belief that no lives were lost. The entire business portion of the city is destroyed, however, and the loss is heavy on the citizens of the place. The fact that the buildings were nearly all frame made them fall easy prey to the flames. The resolution of the losers to reconstruct in brick and stone will eventually make the conflagration a benefit to the city.

THE conflict between science and sentiment at Johnstown should be a brief one.

The first duty is to the living, and it should be demonstrated that cremation of the wreckage of the city would materially lessen the danger of pestilence. The torch should be applied promptly. There is little prospect of identifying bodies from this time on, and burning them for the sake of the survivors and the men and women who are working in the ruins would be no disservice to the dead. Besides, there is danger in the hasty burial of thousands of corpses within a small area.

ALTHOUGH the order deferring the extension of the Civil Service rules to the railway postal service gave CLARKSON's fast guillotine a two-months' whack at the Democrats in that service, their heads have been falling in scores since they supposed themselves under the protection of a law forbidding their removal except for cause. Nearly a clean sweep was made in Virginia after the 1st of May. Removals made and announced several weeks later were dated back for the sake of appearances, and sixteen removals on lines running out of Louisville were announced as late as May 22. Of course the new men must have time to learn their duties, and in the meantime the public must put up with annoying delays in the mail service, of which there are many complaints.

PROHIBITION was beaten in New Hampshire when the question was submitted to a popular vote. But that State is still ruled by the Republican party, and that party ruled by its Prohibition majority in the same election in which the amendment was adopted.

THE greatest carnival of fire ever seen will take place in St. Louis next fall. But the damage will be paid for in advance, and it will only furnish a gorgeous spectacle for thousands of people.

THE dispatches from Washington prove that no amount of cold water can dampen the ardor of the Missourians. They are still pushing their claims in the mud and slime of the Potomac around the White House.

THE entertainment provided for the Shah of Persia by the Emperor of Germany consists of a banquet, an operatic performance, an artillery review, and a ballet. The Shah will have reached the height of modern civilization when the Emperor gets through with him.

THE aim of the Boulangerists, according to NAQUET, the diminutive leader of the party, is to Americanize France. And the people are going about it, according to reports, by trying to get as many American dollars into French pocketbooks as possible while the Exposition lasts.

THE statute enacted by the Missouri Legislature for the alleged purpose of preventing the formation of trusts, pools and price-fixing combinations generally is apparently producing large results. The great white lead combine and the consolidation of eighteen St. Louis breweries under one management are its first fruits.

“AMERICANIZE” is the watchword of the Boulangerists according to NAQUET. Their worship of a flashy leader who travels openly with a mistress and an extravagant retinue, on means obtained no one knows how, affords but slight ground for a hope that they will succeed in Americanizing either their government or themselves.

WHO is there that is not thrilled and stimulated into finer manhood and womanhood by the recital of the generous and courageous acts of men and women who were parts of the terrible drama? The unknown man who rode down the Conemaugh turnpike warning the people and who was overwhelmed in the flood; the brave Mrs. OGLE who stayed at her telegraph key signaling the danger to all stations in the valley until she signed her own death warrant in the words: “This is my last message;” the courageous girl operator at Johnstown who ticked off the incidents of the flood until the waters swept her to death closed the circuit; the hundreds of men and women who died that others might live—all are heroes and give renewed inspiration to the human race.

SCIENCE is already alert and is ready to study the best means of averting such catastrophes in future by the light of this experience. And finally the spectacle of the whole civilized world responding generously to the cry for help which comes from the devastated district is worth living for.

THE greatest carnival of fire ever seen will take place in St. Louis next fall. But the damage will be paid for in advance, and it will only furnish a gorgeous spectacle for thousands of people.

THE dispatches from Washington prove that no amount of cold water can dampen the ardor of the Missourians. They are still pushing their claims in the mud and slime of the Potomac around the White House.

THE entertainment provided for the Shah of Persia by the Emperor of Germany consists of a banquet, an operatic performance, an artillery review, and a ballet. The Shah will have reached the height of modern civilization when the Emperor gets through with him.

THE aim of the Boulangerists, according to NAQUET, the diminutive leader of the party, is to Americanize France. And the people are going about it, according to reports, by trying to get as many American dollars into French pocketbooks as possible while the Exposition lasts.

THE statute enacted by the Missouri Legislature for the alleged purpose of preventing the formation of trusts, pools and price-fixing combinations generally is apparently producing large results. The great white lead combine and the consolidation of eighteen St. Louis breweries under one management are its first fruits.

“AMERICANIZE” is the watchword of the Boulangerists according to NAQUET. Their worship of a flashy leader who travels openly with a mistress and an extravagant retinue, on means obtained no one knows how, affords but slight ground for a hope that they will succeed in Americanizing either their government or themselves.

WHO is there that is not thrilled and stimulated into finer manhood and womanhood by the recital of the generous and courageous acts of men and women who were parts of the terrible drama? The unknown man who rode down the Conemaugh turnpike warning the people and who was overwhelmed in the flood; the brave Mrs. OGLE who stayed at her telegraph key signaling the danger to all stations in the valley until she signed her own death warrant in the words: “This is my last message;” the courageous girl operator at Johnstown who ticked off the incidents of the flood until the waters swept her to death closed the circuit; the hundreds of men and women who died that others might live—all are heroes and give renewed inspiration to the human race.

SCIENCE is already alert and is ready to study the best means of averting such catastrophes in future by the light of this experience. And finally the spectacle of the whole civilized world responding generously to the cry for help which comes from the devastated district is worth living for.

THE greatest carnival of fire ever seen will take place in St. Louis next fall. But the damage will be paid for in advance, and it will only furnish a gorgeous spectacle for thousands of people.

THE dispatches from Washington prove that no amount of cold water can dampen the ardor of the Missourians. They are still pushing their claims in the mud and slime of the Potomac around the White House.

THE entertainment provided for the Shah of Persia by the Emperor of Germany consists of a banquet, an operatic performance, an artillery review, and a ballet. The Shah will have reached the height of modern civilization when the Emperor gets through with him.

THE aim of the Boulangerists, according to NAQUET, the diminutive leader of the party, is to Americanize France. And the people are going about it, according to reports, by trying to get as many American dollars into French pocketbooks as possible while the Exposition lasts.

THE statute enacted by the Missouri Legislature for the alleged purpose of preventing the formation of trusts, pools and price-fixing combinations generally is apparently producing large results. The great white lead combine and the consolidation of eighteen St. Louis breweries under one management are its first fruits.

“AMERICANIZE” is the watchword of the Boulangerists according to NAQUET. Their worship of a flashy leader who travels openly with a mistress and an extravagant retinue, on means obtained no one knows how, affords but slight ground for a hope that they will succeed in Americanizing either their government or themselves.

WHO is there that is not thrilled and stimulated into finer manhood and womanhood by the recital of the generous and courageous acts of men and women who were parts of the terrible drama? The unknown man who rode down the Conemaugh turnpike warning the people and who was overwhelmed in the flood; the brave Mrs. OGLE who stayed at her telegraph key signaling the danger to all stations in the valley until she signed her own death warrant in the words: “This is my last message;” the courageous girl operator at Johnstown who ticked off the incidents of the flood until the waters swept her to death closed the circuit; the hundreds of men and women who died that others might live—all are heroes and give renewed inspiration to the human race.

SCIENCE is already alert and is ready to study the best means of averting such catastrophes in future by the light of this experience. And finally the spectacle of the whole civilized world responding generously to the cry for help which comes from the devastated district is worth living for.

THE greatest carnival of fire ever seen will take place in St. Louis next fall. But the damage will be paid for in advance, and it will only furnish a gorgeous spectacle for thousands of people.

THE dispatches from Washington prove that no amount of cold water can dampen the ardor of the Missourians. They are still pushing their claims in the mud and slime of the Potomac around the White House.

THE entertainment provided for the Shah of Persia by the Emperor of Germany consists of a banquet, an operatic performance, an artillery review, and a ballet. The Shah will have reached the height of modern civilization when the Emperor gets through with him.

THE aim of the Boulangerists, according to NAQUET, the diminutive leader of the party, is to Americanize France. And the people are going about it, according to reports, by trying to get as many American dollars into French pocketbooks as possible while the Exposition lasts.

THE statute enacted by the Missouri Legislature for the alleged purpose of preventing the formation of trusts, pools and price-fixing combinations generally is apparently producing large results. The great white lead combine and the consolidation of eighteen St. Louis breweries under one management are its first fruits.

FIGHTING FOR RIGHT

Gladstone's Vigorous Campaign in the West of England.

The Condition to Which Italy Has Been Reduced by High Taxes.

Probable Reverses to British Arms on the Burmese Frontier.

The Shah of Persia Departs From St. Petersburg Accompanied by a Warning From the Czar—Alexander's Best Friend in Europe—The Maybrick Poisoning Case—Penniless Condition of the Defendant—A London Society Lady Severely Rebuked by Mrs. Chamberlain—Cause of the Incident and Comments—Henry George and the Single Tax Advocates in Paris—Looking for Evidence Against Boulangier—Editor Halsted Contradicts the Rumor of His Proposed Renomination—Americans in Europe—Society Notes—Foreign News.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

ONDON, June 8.—Mr. Gladstone's yacht arrived in Dartmouth harbor this afternoon. The Liberal leader will spend Whitunday at Dartmouth making visits on shore, but sleeping on board. On Monday he will proceed by rail to Torquay, where he will be received and entertained at luncheon by Sir Arthur Haye, Liberal candidate for the Torquay division, before addressing a great meeting. When the meeting is ended Mr. Gladstone, with Sir Arthur and Lady Haye will drive, possibly by way of Brixham, back to The Dart, where Mr. Gladstone will embark for his further progress down the Channel to Falmouth, whence he will return to Plymouth, where he will leave the yacht on Friday. Mr. Gladstone's mode of spending his Whitunday is thoroughly characteristic of the man.

BETTER THAN REST.

Just before starting on his journey he said that "variety of occupation is better than rest," and it is not too much to affirm that what would be regarded by ordinary mortals as the basest kind of work is in the case of Mr. Gladstone a species of recreation. The present visit to the west of England recalls a similar campaign that was carried out with remarkable vigor and success in July, 1877. Then, as now, Mr. Gladstone was in opposition in the House of Commons, but the results of the extra parliamentary exertions were plainly and manifestly revealed when an appeal was made to the constituents in the spring of 1880. There is good ground for believing that a similar issue will be witnessed when another appeal is made to the electors.

A DISSENTING STRONGHOLD.

Cornwall and Devonshire are at the present strongholds of the dissentient Liberals, and Mr. Gladstone could not spend his Whitunday Sundays better than in leading an assault upon them. Preparations have been made at ministerial headquarters to secure a series of counter demonstrations in the West of England. Wherever Mr. Gladstone speaks a Unionist meeting will follow, at which an endeavor will be made to reply to the arguments of the Liberal leader. Mr. Gladstone's meeting at Torquay on Monday will be followed by a gathering to be addressed by Col. Saunders on Wednesday and the Liberal meeting at Plymouth will be succeeded within a day or two by a Conservative meeting, with Sir Edward Clark and T. W. Russell as the chief speakers.

In his return to Weymouth to-day Mr. Gladstone was more than usually impressive. He confessed that political contention was not the proper method of the closing term of human existence, but he said the calls of public duty were so urgent that he hoped, with the help of the Almighty, to remain yet awhile in the struggle. The brave old man was cheered over and over again by friend and foe.

CURRENT TOPICS.

The American engineers as a body are receiving more than usual attention in Liverpool and Manchester. The English society of engineers are very cordial. Public meetings will be held here next week, after which the party will scatter, though most of them go to the Paris Exposition.

The American "cyclists" are also getting some notice in their visits through Ireland and England. To-day they are at Stratford-on-Avon. They will arrive here on Monday and be the guests of local "cyclists."

ITALY'S CONDITION.

The State to Which Adherence to the Triple Compact Has Reduced Her.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

OME, June 9.—Recent events go to show that during the visit of King Humbert to Berlin one of the leading subjects which were discussed was the unfortunate condition to which Italy has been reduced by that portion of the terms of the triple alliance which compels Italy to maintain her naval and military forces at a given level of efficiency. Though Italy is the poorest of the great powers, she has to keep twelve army corps, as compared with Austria's fifteen and Germany's eighteen. This would be quite a possible performance if we were all. But Italy has a long and exposed coast to defend. The prime object of her policy is to prevent any alteration to her detriment in the status of the Mediterranean powers, and accordingly she has maintained a frontier force which ranks next to that of France.

A TERRIBLE DRAMA. The naval military expenditures of Italy have been a terrible drain on the national resources. The various governments have been swept away by the national movement during recent years, left behind them a nearly all provinces except Piedmont, an agrarian, social and intellectual condition of Southern Italy is worse than that of Ireland or Poland. Even in Northern Italy the conditions are little better. The limit of taxation has been reached and the parliament has declared that military expenditure can no further go. The endurance limit of the peasantry has been also reached, as is evidenced by their strike.

ENGLAND REFORM.

King Humbert, since his return, has been urging an agrarian reform, but it is feared it will come too late to relieve Italy from a terrible "economic crisis." While military expenditure of Germany has produced a bad economic and political influence has also been felt in Italy. In Germany the patriots who worked and fought for unity were Liberals. But the military necessities of the country and the military policy of the dynasty have favored the growth of reaction. Signor Criqui, who began life as a follower and friend of Garibaldi, is now the intimate friend of Bismarck.

THE SINGLE TAX.

The Coming Conference in Paris—Henry George on State Socialism.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

PARIS, June 8.—The single tax is paying much attention to the arrival of Henry George and the conference of the single-tax advocates, which will be held at the Hotel Continental on next Tuesday. An influential French committee, including seven deputies, eight or nine municipal councilors and a large number of well-known writers on economic subjects, will co-operate in the meeting. The chiefs of the different schools of land reformers of Germany, Holland, Switzerland, Belgium and other Continental countries will be present, besides representatives of Great Britain, France, the United States and Australia. The initiative of the gathering has been taken by the continental land reformers and has for its object a meeting with George and his English friends and effecting such an understanding as will promote the growth of the single tax options which are just beginning to take root in France.

Your correspondent saw George to-day and asked him what ground the conference would probably take in regard to socialism, which is just now the subject of much discussion. "Socialism," answered George, "is such an indefinite term over here that it is hard to answer to that question. Men who see the necessity of social improvement are called socialists, but in the trade unions of the term state socialists, I found them strong in London than elsewhere and not at all strong in London. Socialism in this sense must yield to the single tax idea, which assigns adequate cause to social injustice and advocates definite and simple remedy. I seek no controversy with socialists but am willing to meet them under proper conditions."

"Are you going to Australia in October?" "I have not decided yet. I have an urgent appeal to go there and possibly shall."

RAIDING A MILLINER'S SHOP.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

PARIS, June 8.—Paris is amused by the raid of the "single tax" on a milliner to find evidence against George, and the Senate Committee of Investigation is in a quandary whether or not to bring the accusation against the General.

TO BE TRIED FOR HER LIFE.

The Maybrick Poisoning Case the Engrossing Topic in London.

ONDON, June 8.—The Maybrick poisoning case has occupied more space than any other one thing in the English papers this week. It remains the question of absorbing interest. The trial will be before the Court of Queen's Bench, on which was based the verdict of wilful murder, was necessarily one-sided, but people in a position to know the facts say the details on which the accused relies to explain away the evidence against her will not hold water.

In a letter produced at the close of the inquiry and written to Brierly since her arrest, Mrs. Maybrick said: "Appearances are terribly against me. But, before God, I am innocent."

Unless friends in America come to her assistance she will have no money to employ counsel, as the solicitors who defended her at the inquest were employed on the understanding that the brothers of the deceased would pay the expenses of the defense out of their pocket. They privately decline to do, and counsel have expressed the intention of withdrawing from the case.

The sole benefit which Mrs. Maybrick can derive from her husband's estate under any circumstances is from certain "insurance policies, amounting to $125,000. If convicted of murder, she cannot claim this. The only property to which she is entitled in her own right is a half interest in the house on Fourteenth street in New York. This house is mortgaged for more than its value, but is let for a term of years at a rent which, after paying the mortgage interest and expenses, advances about $700 yearly between Mrs. Maybrick and her mother. But Mrs. Maybrick has only a life interest in this house, which revert to her children after her death. Owing to the expert testimony required at the trial the cost of the defense is sure to reach $7,000, and will probably amount to three times as much. The case comes to trial at the August assizes.

A FLEA IN HIS EAR.

The Czar's Gentle Hint to the Shah of Persia Induces a Hasty Departure.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

BERLIN, June 8.—OME of the best informed have say that the Shah's visit to St. Petersburg has been an unhappy one, and the rest of his journey is not likely to be altogether overflowing with joy. The Logne Gazette, which was supposed to know nearly everything which goes on privately between crowned heads, intimates in its brutal frank manner that the Shah left with a flea in his ear. In support of this, delicate and confidential sources assert that in one of his conferences with the Shah it was further conceded that any further concessions by Persia to England might result in war, and war in partial annexation—not of Russia to Persia. With this in his ear the King of Kings skipped. That is saying, departed sooner than his Majesty intended to, and faster than usual with his royal dignity.

The Czar has offended some of his nobility, including too highly his future daughter-in-law, the Princess Mafitza, and her heroic father, Prince Nikita of Montenegro, calling the latter his best friend in Europe. This has set all the German and Austrian leaders to work to find in it some deep diplomatic meaning fraught with peace or war.

SOCIETY SWELLS.

One of Them Rebuked by Mrs. Chamberlain—Americans in Berlin.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

ONDON, June 8.—HE story is going the rounds of the English papers that Mrs. Chamberlain was very rude in rebuking openly a lady at a social reception here a few nights since, because the conversation was too salacious to suit her taste. No names are mentioned, but the Post-Dispatch is informed by one who was present that the lady referred to as inquiring which displeased Mrs. Chamberlain was Lady Mandeville; though she said nothing at all unusual in ordinary conversation in London drawing-rooms. Mrs. Chamberlain did not rise and leave the room as represented. She simply spoke to Lady Mandeville about addressing such talk to her or in her presence. All the men are praising Mrs. Chamberlain for her courage and the women are blaming her for undertaking to assume to be too didactic.

MUTUAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

The news cabled by your correspondent several weeks ago that Jenny Chamberlain was going to marry Naylor Leyland or "Bageddy" Leyland, as he is called, has been contradicted by the society papers here, but your representative is assured to-day by a close friend of the family that the news is true and that the wedding is expected to take place this year. Miss Chamberlain herself when questioned evades a direct answer, and says the announcement at least is premature. Naylor Leyland's mother likes Miss Chamberlain very much, and has had her staying some time at their country home in Wales. Leyland has about $30,000 yearly income of his own, and will get a lot more when the grandfather dies. They live in one of the finest houses in London, famous for its big ball-rooms.

Another engagement announced on the quiet is that of Lord Dungen, whom Phyllis Broughton, the actress, is suing for $50,000, to Lady Violet Neville, youngest daughter of the Marquis of Abercavendish.

OVERHILL WITH AMERICANS.

England and Ireland are overrun with Americans, arriving in parties from forty to 400. Jenkins' June party arrived here to-day to stay till Thursday, when they go to Holland. John McCullin is back from Germany, not much impaired in health. He sails for home on the City of Rome on Wednesday.

AN UNFORSEEN EVENT.

One of the tidbits of the week which has not got into the society papers, is a startling incident at Lady Brougham's dinner party, where a guest and present birth of child, ruined a $500 sofa. The committee to which the party was given was that it was a lucky thing that this did not happen with Lady Guiness' famous $10,000 sofa. The unfortunate lady referred to was an American who married into a good English family.

AMERICANS IN BERLIN.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

ONDON, June 8.—Paris is amused by the raid of a "single tax" on a milliner to find evidence against George, and the Senate Committee of Investigation is in a quandary whether or not to bring the accusation against the General.

THE THIRTEEN WAR.

Probable Reverses to British Arms on the Burmese Frontier.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

ONDON, June 8.—The Maybrick poisoning case has occupied more space than any other one thing in the English papers this week. It remains the question of absorbing interest. The trial will be before the Court of Queen's Bench, on which was based the verdict of wilful murder, was necessarily one-sided, but people in a position to know the facts say the details on which the accused relies to explain away the evidence against her will not hold water.

In a letter produced at the close of the inquiry and written to Brierly since her arrest, Mrs. Maybrick said: "Appearances are terribly against me. But, before God, I am innocent."

Unless friends in America come to her assistance she will have no money to employ counsel, as the solicitors who defended her at the inquest were employed on the understanding that the brothers of the deceased would pay the expenses of the defense out of their pocket. They privately decline to do, and counsel have expressed the intention of withdrawing from the case.

The sole benefit which Mrs. Maybrick can derive from her husband's estate under any circumstances is from certain "insurance policies, amounting to $125,000. If convicted of murder, she cannot claim this. The only property to which she is entitled in her own right is a half interest in the house on Fourteenth street in New York. This house is mortgaged for more than its value, but is let for a term of years at a rent which, after paying the mortgage interest and expenses, advances about $700 yearly between Mrs. Maybrick and her mother. But Mrs. Maybrick has only a life interest in this house, which revert to her children after her death. Owing to the expert testimony required at the trial the cost of the defense is sure to reach $7,000, and will probably amount to three times as much. The case comes to trial at the August assizes.

EDITOR HALSTED.

Contradicts the Statement of His Proposed Renomination.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

BERLIN, June 8.—THE Czar's gentle hint to the Shah of Persia induces a hasty departure.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

BERLIN, June 8.—Editor Halsted asks the Post-Dispatch to contradict the rumors of his renomination to the Berlin Ministry. He says the President does not think of doing it, and, anyway, Halsted's own circumstances will not permit him to accept.

Halsted looks weak and worn. He has been consulting with German physicians about the best watering places to which to go. He expects to go to Wiesbaden in a few days. He will return to America as soon as possible.

Scarcely has the disastrous inundations subsided in Bohemia, where hundreds of lives were lost, when news comes from the Rhine that storms have destroyed millions of dollars worth of vines and general crops on its banks.

EXECUTIONS IN CURA.

Sickening Sight—The Drought Broken—Crep Notes.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

HAVANA, June 8.—Machen, the outlaw, it will be remembered, was executed on Saturday morning, June 1, between the hours of 7:30 and 9 o'clock in the open space between the large prison and the water of the entrance to the harbor. Eleven men in hats, with rifles, and a gunboat, fired upon the condemned and his executioners, and the condemned was shot through the heart.

Heavy Hail-Storm.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 8.—Near Henderson early this week a half-storm entirely destroyed crops of wheat, corn and tobacco in a stretch of country about five miles long by two wide. The hailstones lay on the ground four inches deep. Eleven men in hats, with rifles, and a gunboat, fired upon the condemned and his executioners, and the condemned was shot through the heart.

Rain Came Too Late.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

HAVANA, June 8.—Machen, the outlaw, it will be remembered, was executed on Saturday morning, June 1, between the hours of 7:30 and 9 o'clock in the open space between the large prison and the water of the entrance to the harbor. Eleven men in hats, with rifles, and a gunboat, fired upon the condemned and his executioners, and the condemned was shot through the heart.

Heavy Hail-Storm.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 8.—First race, three-fourths mile—Alpens, first; Annawan, second; Waukegan, third. Time 1:30.

Second race, for 2-year-olds, five furlongs—Halsted, first; Amelia, second; Waukegan, third. Time 1:30.

Third race, for 3-year-olds, five furlongs—Amelia, first; Waukegan, second; Waukegan, third. Time 1:30.

Fourth race, for 3-year-olds, five furlongs—Amelia, first; Waukegan, second; Waukegan, third. Time 1:30.

Fifth race, for 3-year-olds, five furlongs—Amelia, first; Waukegan, second; Waukegan, third. Time 1:30.

It was expected that Judge Asa in the fatal chair under the burning sun of a tropical country is a shocking sight. The sight is so shocking, so disgusting that efforts are being made to prevent its repetition.

It is reported that another execution took place this week at Mantanzas and that two of the gang of desperados who fired upon the guard, a civil killing one of the squad near Jevellinos, are to be shot. It is also reported that Machim, the day before his execution disclosed the names and locality of some sixty others implicated in similar crimes, all of whom have been arrested, and they will be tried at once.

In the past two days the welcome news that copious showers have fallen generally throughout the island has come to hand, and planters and farmers are happy in seeing their crops improve in value every day. Centrifugals have reached the highest price attained since 1881, and may even go higher. A few large central estates are still working, but will have to stop shortly to allow the help to attend to the care of the growing cane, which at once will appreciate the much-needed rains that have fallen during the past week and give good prospects for a large crop in 1890.

DEATH OF LEONARD H. SWETT.

Bright's Disease Takes the Eminent Lawyer—Meritorious Record.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

ABSOLUTE HALF-PRICE SALE

Of our whole stock of Printed Pongee Silks and finest quality imported French Pattern Robes.

BROADWAY AND FRANKLIN AV.

FAIRY WEDDING CAKES

THOSE USED BY PEOPLE OF FASHION ARE VERY COSTLY AFFAIRS.

Magnificence at the Wedding Feasts—Mrs. Cleveland, the Astors and Others—Cakes That Cost Over One Thousand Dollars—Carrie Astor's One Thousand Dollar Irish Lace Table Cover.

Special Correspondence of SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Within the memory of the present generation there has been a great change in the fashion with regard to wedding cakes. They are no longer meant to be eaten. Formerly, the "brides-cake," as it was called, was a pyramidal triumph of the confectioner's art, and it was considered an evidence of rare skill to be able to invent a single cake which was as possible the destruction of its symmetry, distributing it equally among the guests and yet retaining the apex and heart for the bride and groom. The next nearest pieces were given to the bridesmaids.

"To sleep upon, yet see them mighty Bonythems of brave gallantries fight."

Now, alas! while the wedding cake is indeed a thing of beauty, more so probably than ever, it is forbidden to the taste. It is no longer the gorgeous mass of fruits and sweetmeats with which, in the days of our grandmothers, the marriage guests were wont to induce frightful visions of anything but a beautiful character, the night after the bridal; it is now a castellated, tiered, gilded and beweaved plaster of paris thing, waxy white, save where it is hidden by the flowers under which it is sometimes disguised. Its interior is a mystery and leaves wide room for conjecture as to what might possibly happen should any one be bold enough to attempt it.

THE EXPLORATION.

Mr. Pinard, the well-known caterer, has probably tickled the palates of more wedding parties than any other member of the culinary profession in the country. What Willard's wedding breakfasts are in Washington, Pinard's wedding lunches and dinners are in New York. In a double sense, he takes the wedding cake. He has supplied more sugar-coated and frosted monuments to grace the union of brides and grooms of social distinction than he can remember.

"Mrs. Cleveland's wedding cake," said Mr. Pinard, "wasn't the expensive thing some people may imagine. The cake itself cost, I think, $600, and above $1000. There were two large boxes containing wedding cakes for the guests and the friends of the family which cost $5 each, so you see the whole bill was $2,500."

Mr. Pinard added, "was that of Mrs. J. C. Ayr's daughter, who married Captain Pieroscio of the U. S. Navy, at their place at No. 257 West Fifth street, the residence of the bride's mother, some years ago. The floral decorations were the most elaborate, and I say, adding to this, that to my knowledge, and cost about $2,500. Remember, this was no ball nor banquet; simply a wedding, attended by a few friends and relatives, and the bride and groom were present, and a bouquet was given to each lady as she left a bow of roses and similes which had been constructed in the form of a heart. The cake was a small bell. You may imagine the amount of labor and real skill necessary to bring this out, and the result was but it was done successfully. The wedding cake was a huge affair and on the top, conspicuously amid the flowers, was the monogram of the united initials of the bride and groom was also on each piece of lead cake served to the guests. The dinner cost between $2,000 and $3,000, the cake and accompaniments $400."

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In appearance he is the most distinguished looking of the American delegates. He has a tall, graceful figure, a finely-shaped head and a frank, open, frank manner. He is a good speaker and may make use of even trifles to quicken his speech.

At the close of the conference, do they present a more attractive picture than their surroundings? Let us see. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the fifty who started.

Among this number was Miss Jennie Wilson, of Greenwood, Pa., who was the only lady who rode the entire distance. Count Herbert Bismarck, who acts as the honorary president of the club, was frequently described that it is not worth while to reiterate the many things said about him. In

RESEMBLES HIS FATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—The wheelmen's great century run of 1888, from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, was completed by thirty out of the

PATRONIZE THE DELICATESSEN.

CITY NEWS.

One day in the week may be often enough for a score of men in the small stores advertising their sales, but for our mammoth establishment, doing the business and turning over the cash receipts of D. Crawford & Co., one day in the week would be totally inadequate for their disposal. For the benefit of those unacquainted with the fact, we would say that Crawford's has a regularly organized remnant department at the north end of their western boulevard, open for business every day in the week, where remnants can be bought for less money than in small stores with one-day-in-the-week sales.

For Trunks and Traveling Bags
Go to the manufacturer's, where you have a large assortment to select from and at lowest prices. Basket and steamer trunks a specialty. Trunks covered and repaired.

HELMET & MEISEL, 400 North Sixth St.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
Corner of 9th & Olive streets. Set of teeth, $5.

PRIVATE matters skillfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Dinsmore, 614 Pine st.

DR. WHITNER, 617 S. Charles, cures diseases of indirection, indulgences. Call or write.

THE YOUNGEST MURDERER.

An 8-Year-Old Lad Sent to the Penitentiary for Manslaughter.

By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 8.—For the past three days a rather remarkable trial has been progressing in Berkeley County. The defendant was a negro boy named Warren Chatham, 8 years old and small for his age, who was charged with the murder of his master, a white boy 9 years old. The boy is half-witted, but he showed himself to be remarkably accomplished in giving false testimony. Warren Chatham was born in Columbia, S. C. He disappeared very mysteriously. After having been seen in company with Warren Chatham, he was found in Columbia upon being questioned and denied knowing of his whereabouts. Ten days later the body of the negro boy was found hanging from a tree. Chatham then declared that they had been trying to cut wood and the axe had flown off the handle and killed him. They went home and never told his mother. Chatham's lawyer made no defense, but simply stood on the defense, attempting to show that the infant between the ages of 7 and 14 is incapable of committing a crime. The negro was found guilty of the murder. Chatham guilty of manslaughter, and he was sentenced to two years in the Penitentiary at suitable labor. He is the youngest convict in the State and probably in America.

Trunks and Traveling Goods.

I am now prepared to show the traveling public the largest and best assortment of goods in my line ever displayed in the Western country. Superior workmanship, with all the latest improvements in trunks, bags and satchels. My prices, as usual, are moderate, and I always aim to give satisfaction. Come and see.

P. C. MURPHY,
Third and St. Charles streets.

Prison Authorities Sustained.

By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 8.—The case of Ex-Convict Chris Johnson against Warden E. C. Watkins for $25,000 damages for reason of a flogging given to the plaintiff when he was a prisoner in the Iowa House of Correction was taken from the jury in the United States Court to-day, and the action dismissed. The plaintiff had relied on the illegality of the use of the strap in the prison. Judge Severens said the statutes of the State permitted punishment by flogging in all cases in which it was held liable.

He is the only man in the public interest involved, and the policy necessary in the management of the prison for the public good and safety of the inmates, and in overturning an act that has for so many years been acquiesced in by the people and the State authorities.

IT'S ALL IRISH.

Ancient Order of Hibernians' Picnic Next Sunday—A Big Day's Fun for Everybody.

Next Sunday, June 16, at the Fair Grounds will be the greatest day's sport ever given by the A. O. H. Athletic sports and all the old Irish national games, including horse, mule, pony and donkey races, prize drills, 100 Texas jack rabbits for the boys, trees to all, five greased pigs, sack race, etc. Tickets $2.50. Children accompanied by parents admitted free.

Oregon Railway and Navigation.

By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.

OMAHA, Neb., June 8.—Director Dodge of the Union Pacific left this morning for Portland. His business there is to name, jointly with Henry Villard, an unanimous Board of Directors of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Co. This will be the principal office of the Western Presidents. Adams, the Union Pacific and Oakes of the Northern Pacific roads. It is stated that the all litigation in New York affecting the navigation company is to be discontinued, and the Northern Pacific is to continue its guarantee of 6 per cent on its stock.

The lease is, however, to be amended so as to permit the expenditure of certain sums for additional equipment and other purposes.

TEXAS SPRING PALACE.

Round Trip, $2.15.

The Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway will sell round trip tickets from St. Louis to Fort Worth at above rates June 8 and 15, good returning until June 30. For tickets apply to their information office at ticket office, 104 North Fourth street or Union Depot.

Valuable Trotter Sold.

By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 8.—The trotting stallion Accolite, owned by R. P. Pepper of the South Elkhorn stock farm, near Frankfort, was sold yesterday to J. S. Coxey of Massillon. The price was $4,000. Accolite has won $1,000 and is worth $2,000. He will be put on the trotting turf. He is by Onward, dam Lady Alice, by Almont; second dam Lady Mambrino, by Mambrino Chief, third dam by Gray Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland at Marion.

By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.

MARION, Mass., June 8.—W. T. Cleverland, president of the Marion Manufacturing Co., died yesterday at Marion. He was 65 years old.

the go

Y

REAL PROPERTY MARKET

SMALL PURCHASES OF HOME SITES THE FEATURE OF THE WEEK.

The East End Merchants' Committee Preparing for Action—Plans for Rebuilding the Old Section Now Being Developed—Improving Elmwood Park—Selling Lots Under the Hammer Between Showers—Agents' Schedules of Office Sales.

REALLY the exchange of ideas resulting from the meeting of merchants of the East End and the townsmen, which was held on the 5th inst., at the Mercantile Club rooms, have commenced to bear good fruit and the indications are that the organized effort to reclaim the old business district and restore it to its former commercial supremacy is going to succeed. Several of the largely interested parties have a variety of methods by which they hope to redeem the valuable territory from the neglect in which it has fallen and they have gone into the matter with a spirit of enthusiasm which bids fair to enthuse others and become widespread. Engineers have been engaged at individual expense and draughtsmen employed to make drawings illustrative of plans that are to be submitted for the consideration of the organization at its next general meeting to be held June 14, 8 p. m., at the Mercantile Club rooms.

At the initiatory meeting, which was so largely attended, will be remembered that Messrs. Richard Ennis, the President of the East End Improvement Association, Bernheim, John Wiel, and John C. Moffett were appointed a committee to formulate a plan by which the desired object could be attained. These gentlemen, after having given considerable thought to the subject, became more impressed than ever with the important duty assigned to them, and having the desire to do all that was expected of them and being empowered by the meeting to enlarge the number of the committee of which they are the nucleus from fifteen to twenty-five members, the following additional names were added: Mr. Carlos S. Greeley, L. L. Butler, A. Nederhut, Chas. P. Chouteau, Giles F. Filley, Lewis C. Nelson, J. C. Cummings, Thomas S. Norman, L. M. Dickey, C. C. Chapman, T. J. L. Hobson, H. Smith, Miles Sols, J. H. Terry, D. F. Kaine, W. S. Rows, Henry Sayers, P. O. Murphy, Conrad Finke and Herman Haucus.

IMPROVEMENTS AUTHORIZED.

A meeting of the directors of the Franklin Real Estate Co. called to receive the report of the auditor, was held on June 5, and on Monday last, took place at the Mercantile Club yesterday afternoon, and at the conclusion of the business it was decided that a meeting was to be called at a convenient time and place to consider the property of the organization and enhancing the value of its property, being the principal object of the corporation. The old board consisting of Messrs. Frank W. Ireland, W. C. Morris, were re-elected for the ensuing year and the previous list of officers was reinstated, viz: Frank Oberst, President; W. C. Morris, Vice-President; Frank S. George, Secretary; satisfactory reports of the previous year's business were submitted, and a plan adopted for the future. The corporation has a large amount of the company's property. The board ordered the letting of contracts for fifty carriages and for grading and macadamizing the avenues, and for the construction of a new depot and other improvements.

AUCTIONEERING BETWEEN SHOWERS.

The East End Merchants' and Homeowners' Wade Real Estate Co. yesterday afternoon were both successful, resulting in the sale of the property offered at an aggregate of $17,000 for a lot of 100x140, $9,700. It was much feared that the rain would cause a postponement of the sale, but fortunately the weather was favorable and the sale remained intact after the last lot was sold at satisfactory prices.

Following are the names of purchasers and location of lots they bought with prices:

Grand avenue, east side, at the northeast corner of Cass, 30x9 inches by a step of 10x9, $1,000; a lot of 20x14 feet. The next 23-foot lot adjoining on the north was taken by the same purchaser at $600 a foot, and the sale was closed at $1,200. The lot of 100x140, the ground offered in that locality, was taken at $45.50 per foot by Luke McLaughlin.

Lengenwalt avenue, west side, 100x125 feet, east end, from Montgomery, $1,200 a foot. Dr. Robert Albin bought the last and most southerly lot on Baldwin street, 50x125, at $11.25 a foot.

Clifton Heights Station—C. H. Davis, $10,000; a lot of 100x140, from Addie L. S. & T. A. Scott report the following:

Broadway—At the northwest corner of Quincy and a corner of a new three-story building, dimensions of the lot omitted, was purchased an investment for $4,000 by Mr. Frank Oberst, President. Mr. Oberst, who reports this transaction, says he bought the premises through J. L. Hornsby, attorney for the grantor.

Ferry street—south side, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth, a lot of 100x140, $1,200. The Union Cooperage Co. to George Knapp, who will improve the site with a dwelling.

Ferry street—north side, 100x140 feet, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth, for $1,200. The Fourteenth street, for $35, cash, from the St. Louis Cooperage Co. to F. A. Miller, whose business is to be continued in the building, a substantial deposit for investments in a substantial building.

PROMISCUOUS PROPERTIES.

Broadway—At the northwest corner of Quincy and a corner of a new three-story building, dimensions of the lot omitted, was purchased an investment for $4,000 by Mr. Frank Oberst, President. Mr. Oberst, who reports this transaction, says he bought the premises through J. L. Hornsby, attorney for the grantor.

Grand avenue—A lot on the east side, between Arsenic and Wyoming streets, 100x125 feet, $1,000; a lot of 100x140, $1,200. Mrs. Mary Lauter, $200 a foot. The purchaser will build a residence on this property.

First street—The two-story brick dwelling and one-story frame house on the southeast corner of Buena Vista street, with lot 50x140 feet, $1,000; a lot of 20x14 feet, $1,000. Mrs. C. Zeller, was purchased by Henry H. Kornblum for $5,000.

Withinne avenue—A lot on the south side, between Arsenic and Wyoming streets, 100x140 feet, owned by Dr. Edward Benkendorf, sold to Frederick Schleick for $200.

Ferry street—The southeast corner of Zapp street, 42x40 feet, was purchased through Farrar & Co. by A. J. and Jane Lengenwalt, $1,000. The lot is 100x140 feet, Texas avenue. The one-story, four room frame house on Rev. R. Winkler, $0.45 Texas avenue, a lot of 100x140 feet, and $1,000. Mr. Schneider will occupy it for his residence.

Ferry street—A lot on the east side, 42 feet north of Zapp street, 60x20 feet, was purchased by W. G. Niemann, of John W. Ross, $1,000. Mr. A. W. Deane, a lot of 100x140 feet, $1,000. Mr. Deane will erect a dwelling on the lot.

A LUCAS PLACE PURCHASE.

Bradley & Quinette report the following sales:

Lucas place—South side, situated 125 feet east of Nineteenth street, opposite the Art Hall, 100x125 feet of ground, for $2,200, from Charles H. Christian to George W. Ross, $1,000. Mr. H. Christian to Marguerite A. Griffin.

Cuba Brilliana avenue—North side, about four hundred and eighty feet west of Marcus, 50x100 feet of ground at $18 a foot, from John R. Christian to W. H. Waggoner.

Brilliana avenue—North side, 100x140 feet, $1,000. The lot is 100x140 feet, $1,000. Dr. Edward Benkendorf, will sell to Conrad Goetz at $10 per foot. The purchaser will erect a dwelling on the lot.

Real Estate Transfers.

Charles Eschenbach and wife to Leo. Pollard Freund, $5 ft. on Missouri av., 100x140 feet, $1,000. Mr. and Mrs. H. Niemann and wife to Fredrick E. Haner, $50 ft. on Missouri av., 100x140 feet, $1,000. Mr. and Mrs. H. Niemann to Christian H. Christian.

Cuba Brilliana avenue—North side, about four hundred and eighty feet west of Marcus, 50x100 feet of ground at $18 a foot, from John R. Christian to W. H. Waggoner.

Brilliana avenue—North side, 100x140 feet, $1,000. The lot is 100x140 feet, $1,000. Dr. Edward Benkendorf, will sell to Conrad Goetz at $10 per foot. The purchaser will erect a dwelling on the lot.

A LUCAS PLACE PURCHASE.

Bradley & Quinette report the following sales:

Lucas place—South side, situated 125 feet east of Nineteenth street, opposite the Art Hall, 100x125 feet of ground, for $2,200, from Charles H. Christian to George W. Ross, $1,000.

Lucas place—No. 1219, a six-room brick residence and 10x125 feet of ground for $1,000 from M. B. Scanlan to A. W. Deane.

Charles S. Straus—Owing sales: $125 and $135.

at the southeast corner of Second and Carondelet, a two-story brick dwelling of eight rooms; a two-story brick building on the corner, containing a large store and four rooms; lot 50x140; purchased by George Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag to E. Gustav Steffensen for $1,200; Mr. Steffensen will improve the property and build a residence thereon, Leona Weindel being the grantor.

South Sixth street—Lot 50x140 feet on the south side, between Park avenue and Bauger street; sold for the George Maguire estate to Simon Heimkens for $600. The purchase is in agreement with a New Jersey residence at an early date.

Compton avenue—Lot 45x100 feet on the north side, between Franklin and Cass, for $400 to Kevin and Stephen Prag

GOT 'EM ON THE LIST.

COMPLETION OF THE CITY JURY CENSUS
YESTERDAY.The Names of 80,000 Sober and Intelligent
St. Louisans Reported to Commissioner
Carlisle as Competent for Duty in the Box —Persons Exempt from Service—Deputies Prepared for Obtrusive Citizens.

HE jury of the city of St. Louis was completed last evening and the force of census-takers dismissed by Commissioner Carlisle. Nearly 80,000 citizens have been listed for service in the box, to administer the oaths involving the life, liberty and property of their peers. A number of these will be stricken from the lists as unfit for service or exempted by law, on the office arrangement of the names. Fear may now depart from the hearts of the citizens who, during the last thirty days have been kept busy dodging callers of official men.

Many citizens have forfeited their right to vote under the belief that the jury lists were compiled from the registration lists. This impression is erroneous. The law provides for a distinct canvass of the city for the purpose of collecting the names of eligible citizens, which will be called upon by the courts to perform the highest duties towards their fellow men.

By next Saturday the names collected during the past thirty days will be deposited in a large lottery wheel in the Jury Commissioner's office. From this they will be drawn on the order of the different courts in which they are to serve. When weeded out the lists will contain the names of about 40,000 citizens. The law on the

QUALIFICATIONS OF JURORS
is as follows: "Every male citizen of this State, sober and intelligent, of good reputation, of the age of 21, and not excused from jury duty by the general laws of this State, or otherwise disqualified or excused as provided in this act, shall be deemed to be qualified for and subject to the performance of jury duty under the provisions hereof."

Sec. 9 of the jury act provides for the EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN CITIZENS from jury service as follows:

The name of no person shall be taken down who is not a citizen of the United States or a member of the militia, or who is not sufficiently acquainted with the English language to be able to understand clearly the proceedings ordinarily had in courts of justice, or who is actually ex-empted by the laws of the State, or by the Commissioner of medicine, druggist or apothecary, attorney-at-law, ferry-keeper or person in actual charge of any mill, or of professor or other teacher in any school or institution of learning, or who is over the age of 65 years; or who is actually and regularly employed in the service of any railroad company, or its tributaries or who is in the employment of any railroad company, or who holds any office of trust or honor in any corporation, organized under the laws of the United States or of the State of Missouri or the ordinances of the city within which such Jury Commissioner is located.

Nor shall the said Commissioner or his deputies take down the name of any person of ill repute, or who is a drunkard, or a lecher, or any person who shall be found loitering about without visible means of support and without applying to any hospital, or to any charitable institution, or who is a servant within the laws of the State or the ordinances of said city touching vagrancy. An amendment to this section, includes the names of bankers and cashiers of banks in the privileged classes exempted from jury duty.

In addition to the names that the Jury Commissioner and his deputies are authorized to summarily punish the artful dodgers with whom they so often have to deal.

The Commissioner and his deputies are empowered to enter any house or factory and inquire the name, age and qualifications of any person in his employ or of his household. The law empowers the deputy to compel an capable citizen to answer these questions when so required.

TO SIGN HIS NAME
to an examination, and to arrest without further warrant any person who fails to comply with these requirements. To secure himself against errors Jury Commissioner Carlisle instructed his deputies to make a record of the facts attending the release of the men in the main office. An citizen persisting in his refusal to give the required information may be arrested in any circuit court and committed until he purges himself of contempt by answering the questions. The law states that just completed the Jury Commissioner has not been compelled to resort to these measures. Several cases of offenders failing to give the required information were reported, and on learning the powers of the Commissioner the offenders soon surrendered and gave all the information required.

During the next thirty days the Commissioner and his deputies will be engaged in examining persons who can present legal reasons why they should not be called on for service.

A few more $15 suits for $7.50.

Men's nice silk-faced cashmere suits, fully worth $15, at $7.50. Great reduction sale one week longer.

GLOBE, 708 to 715 Franklin Avenue.

THE JASPER COUNTY MINES.

A Profitable Week for All the Mines—Plenty of Investors.

By Telegraph to the Post-Democrat.

CARLISLE, Mo., June 8.—The week in all the mines has been profitable and although hindered at some points by reason of water, the working forces have been increased and the output large. The Jasper County Mining Co. are busily engaged in preparing to operate one of the best mining plants known in this region. At the Lamb diggings for the lower they get the better of the coal for large requirements. The adjoining mines have already operated new developments have been discovered.

The amount of coal produced and much foreign capital is being offered for investment. Lands are being picked up quickly by the miners.

The Carlisle Zinc Co.'s works the output was 100,000 pounds out of one shaft worked only for the last week. The company was 80 acres of land in the best mineral belt of the State, and as yet have only tried to work the lower portion of the mine. They soon put on the market a portion of the land, as they have been urged to do so by those desirous of good property. The population is alive, with no problems, and its unlimited wealth is being sought after eagerly.

Photographing on Ivory
Is the latest novelty made by Scholten, especially Exposition.

HOTEL PERSONALS.

James J. Dol, Cincinnati; S. P. Johns, Dallas; J. Hardy, DeSoto, and M. H. Wise, Kansas City, are at the Laclede.

G. M. Garvey, Littlefield, Ill.; W. B. Osgood, Boston; F. W. Moore, New York; and D. H. Lockhart, Galveston, are at the Lindell.

H. H. Scott, Chicago; G. O. Brown, Kansas City; W. J. Gossow, New York; John O. Atwood, Philadelphia; and C. F. Scott, Kansas City, are at the Pines.

Orville Ewing, Chattanooga; S. A. Harris, Kansas City; O. W. Butler, New York; N. B. Marshall, Unionville, Mo., and N. W. Han-del, Chicago, are at the Southern.

Orville Ewing sold gold watches, $25 to $100. Come and see them. Hess & Culbertson, North Sixth street.

Barris JUNE CLEARANCE SALE.

GREAT ANNUAL

BARR'S Great Centennial Clearance Sale. Always remember it takes great establishments to do great things, and that Barr's is the GREATEST establishment.

FANS

Ostrich Fans worth $1.75, For 90¢ at a

Our Mary Anderson open-feather Fans go on Monday.

Our Mary Anderson open-feather Fans go on Monday.

Oxidized Hog Bon Boxes..... 17¢
Bay Rum, pint flask..... 19¢
300 Florida Water, pint bottles..... 24¢

In Barr's Notion Department.

Handkerchiefs.

Ladies' Hemstitched and Embroidered, in white and fancy colors, over three hundred different styles, and all pure linen..... 24¢ each

Ladies' Hemstitched Fancy Mourning and Colored Printing, all linen..... 81¢-3¢ each

Ladies' Hemstitched and Embroidered, with Fancy Printing..... 14¢ each

20 doz. Ladies' Japanese Silk Neck
Scarfs, hand painted, quite new..... 98¢ each

Men's China and Japanese Silk Handkerchiefs, hemstitched and full size..... 98¢ each

Staple Notions.

Our new combination Dress Skirt Extender, in black, white and grey only..... 14¢ each

A splendid line of Fancy Metal Dress
Buttons, in all colors—small size..... 23¢

Large size to match..... 49¢ a dozen

800 gross full ball and flat Vegetable
Ivory Buttons, in all colors, at..... 4¢ a dozen

Fine quality bar Pearl Buttons, in three sizes; your choice for 12¢ a dozen

All sizes..... 14¢ a dozen

Pearl Buttons, all colors, go this week at..... 4¢ a dozen

18¢ a dozen

</div

THE POST-DISPATCH

BRANCH OFFICES.

At the following LOCATIONS BRANCH OFFICES have been established where WANT ADVERTISEMENTS and SUBSCRIPTIONS will be received and where the PAPER is kept for sale:

BENTON ST.—1601. .... O. Sutter
BENTON ST.—2672. .... A. H. Vordick
BROADWAY—2001 N. .... O. D'Amour
B'DWAY & ANGELICA, W. J. Kohrmel
BROADWAY—2613 S. .... E. Geiser
BROADWAY—2007 S. .... F. H. Home
BROADWAY—7631 S. .... L. F. Waibel
CARR. ST.—1928. .... Lion Drug Store
CARR. ST.—2201. .... Crowley's Phar
CASS AV.—1000. .... Cass Avenue Phar
CASS AV.—Cor. 23d & W. H. Strathman
CHOUTEAU AV.—1801. .... H. F. A. Spilke
CHOUTEAU AV.—2284. .... C. Schaefer
CHOUTEAU AV.—2387. .... W. E. Krueger
CLARK AV.—2126. .... Chas. P. Oehne
DODIER ST.—2248. .... E. Vogt
EASTON AV.—2120. .... F. C. Pauley
EASTON AV.—4161. .... Fisher & Co
EAST GRAND AV.—1923. .... T. T. Wurmb
ELEVENTH ST.—3701 N. .... T. T. Wurmb
FINNEY AV.—3037. .... P. E. Flequet
FRANKLIN AV.—1600. .... C. Kilpstein
GAMBLE ST.—933. .... A. Braun
GARRISON AV.—1015. .... D. S. Littlefield
GRAND AV.—1400 N. .... F. Sohn & Co
GRAND AV.—1928 N. .... W. D. Tamm
GRAND AV.—2745. .... Thomas Layton
GRAVES—2946. .... B. Jost
HICKORY ST.—800. .... Ferd. W. Schneewald
LAFAYETTE AV.—1800. .... Philip Kaut
LUCAS AV.—1700. .... W. S. Fleming
LUCAS AV.—3341. .... Charles C. May
LAFAYETTE AV.—2601. .... Paul M. Nake
MARKET ST.—2031. .... C. G. Penney
MARKET ST.—2840. .... St. L. Ph. Menard
—1424. .... G. Weinsberg
MICHIGAN & IOWA AV.—Benni Bribach
MORGAN ST.—3930. .... J. S. Procter
NINTH ST.—2625 N. .... O. Claus
OLIVE ST.—1500. .... R. Riley
OLIVE ST.—2890. .... J. L. Royston
OLIVE ST.—3000. .... J. Guerden & Co
OLIVE ST.—3291. .... Louis Schurk
OLIVE ST.—3500. .... Adam B. Roth
PARK AV.—1337. .... G. H. Andreas
SALINA ST.—2707. .... A. P. Kaltwasser
TAYLOR AV.—1900. .... G. H. Wagner
WASHINGTON AV.—1325. .... Primus's Phar
WASHINGTON AV.—2338. .... T. S. Glenn
WASHINGTON AV.—2800. .... J. Weiner
WASHINGTON AV.—3901. .... Sultan's Phar

SUBURBAN.

KIRKWOOD. .... L. P. Hemm
WEBSTER GROVES. .... Liverty Stable
EAST ST. LOUIS. .... G. F. Kresse
BELLEVILLE, ILL. .... Geo. H. Stolberg

TO ADVERTISERS.

Owing to the early departure of the fast-mail train, advertisements for the SUNDAY MORNING POST-DISPATCH must be in the office before 9 o'clock Saturday night to insure insertion.

Parties advertising in these Columns must receive the answer to be addressed in care of POST-DISPATCH, will please ask for check, to enable them to get their letters, as none will be delivered except on presentation of check. All answers to advertisements in these Columns must be addressed in care of the office in care of POST-DISPATCH. Parties answering advertisements must have their replies directed to their own POST-OFFICE address.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.

Temple Israel, corner Twenty-eighth and Pine—Sunday lecture by Rabbi S. H. Sonnchein. "The Last of the Temples," will begin at 10:45 sharp. Everybody welcome.

Temple Shanes Ethem, corner 17th and Pine—Twenty-seventh lecture by Dr. Samuel Salter. This Sunday, May 12, at 10:45 sharp. Subject: "The Beating of Our Times."

St. George's Church, former Belmont and Chestnut, Rev. Robert A. M. Morris, D. D., rector. Holy Communion, at 11 a. m. Every Sunday morning. Services are held every Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the Pickwick Theatre, corner of Washington and Jefferson. Competent assistants. Fourth year, Nine weeks, beginning June 17.

Christian Science services are held every Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the Pickwick Theatre, corner of Washington and Jefferson. Competent assistants. Fourth year, Nine weeks, beginning June 17.

Advent Episcopal Church, North Nineteenth street, between Washington and Jefferson. Services begin at 10:45 a. m. on Sunday evenings. Services are held every Sunday evening at 8 o'clock p. m. All services are conducted in strict silence.

New Church, Swedenborgian Chapel, 2380 Lucas av. Rev. F. L. Higgins, D. D., rector. Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. Morning service. Subject: "The Bread of Life." The supper will follow the sermon. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. Doctrinal class 6 p. m.

Church of the Messiah (Unitarian), 11th and Locust, Rev. Dr. D. W. Ford, D. D., rector. Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. The pastor will preach. Subject: "What is Truth?" Bible class every Thursday at same hour and place. All are welcome.

Advent Episcopal Church, North Nineteenth street, between Washington and Jefferson. Services begin at 10:45 a. m. on Sunday evenings. Services are held every Sunday evening at 8 o'clock p. m. All services are conducted in strict silence.

The Trades.

Y. W. Ford, D. D., will preach at the Second Baptist Church, corner Locust and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. with a sermon on "Freedom and Truth." At 8 o'clock a. m. Subject: "What is Truth?" The supper will follow the sermon. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. Doctrinal class 6 p. m.

Rev. J. W. Ford, D. D., will preach at the Second Baptist Church, corner Locust and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. with a sermon on "Freedom and Truth." At 8 o'clock a. m. Subject: "What is Truth?" The supper will follow the sermon. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. Doctrinal class 6 p. m.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Hall of Bellfontaine Lodge, 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting on Tuesday evening at half past 7. Wright & Son, 2222 Olive, will be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 11th and Locust. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present.

W. M. F. Sarah, Secretary.

Templar Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., 11th and Locust, on Sunday, June 10, at 10:45 a. m. meeting in Odd Fellows Building, on Monday night, June 10, at 8 o'clock. Room 102, 1

ABSOLUTE SALE OF ONE HUNDRED & FIFTY-EIGHT LOTS

The valuable property belonging to the estate of Gabriel S. Chouteau, deceased, WHICH MUST BE SOLD TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER AT PUBLIC SALE, as provided for in the will of Gabriel S. Chouteau,

On Thursday, June 13, 1889.

This property (158 lots) fronts on Clark avenue, Compton avenue, Cardinal and Montrose avenues, and Adams, Scott and Bernard streets, and Eighth and Ninth streets, between Walnut street and Clark avenue, all of it being adjacent to and accessible to the system of railroad tracks running east and west from the Union Depot.

There is no property in the City of St. Louis better adapted to Manufacturing, Warehouse and Wholesale Business Generally than the property here advertised.

It will be sold ABSOLUTELY to the highest bidder on THURSDAY, JUNE 13th, commencing at 10 o'clock, RAIN or SHINE.

CHAS. H. TURNER & CO.,

Agents, Turner Building, Room 2.

JOHN N. DYER,

Executor of the Estate of Gabriel S. Chouteau.

LANHAM & SUTTON, AUCTIONEERS.

E. S. WARNER

REAL ESTATE CO.,

Turner Building, 304 N. Eighth St.

COMPTON HILL.

Elegant Lot, Corner Park and Grand Avenues.

269x260 feet. One of the prettiest and most highly residence lots in that section of the city. Completion of the Grand Avenue Bridge will improve this property, and there is a speculation in it at the price now asked. Terms to suit.

Forest Park Boulevard

500 Feet S. W. Cor. of Boyle Av.

AND 156 Feet N. E. Corner of King's Highway.

200 Feet N. S., West of Lay Av.

This Boulevard, when completed, will be the finest in the city. "There is money to be made on it," and that quickly. Water pipe completed to the Park. Go and look it over.

A New House in Chamberlain Park

Open for inspection each day, if pleasant. If out that way stop in and see it. South side Bartner avenue, between Union and Florence, one block north of Cable & Western Railroad. Half-hourly trains.

A Speculation!

On line Oak Hill & Carondelet Railroad. Several hundred feet at low prices; $7 to $9 per foot.

Fairmount Addition,

On line Oak Hill & Carondelet Railroad. Several hundred feet at low prices; $7 to $9 per foot.

ALSO,

Some good lots on COOK and PAGE avenues, near WHITTIER and SARAH streets, which we can sell at fair figures.

HOMES ON MONTHLY PAYMENTS.

Missouri, Kansas & Texas Trust Co., capital $1,000,000, will buy and build in any part of the city. Parties paying rent and desiring terms should look into this plan.

E. S. WARNER, Agent,

TURNER BUILDING, 304 N. EIGHTH ST.

Phone 488.

CITY REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

BEAUTIFUL LOT

for sale in Chamberlain Park, commanding a fine view, only $80 per foot.

RICHARD H. STINDE, 508 Chestnut.

BARGAIN! BARGAIN!

If you want a lot for an investment that will enhance in value quickly or upon which you may build a fine home, come to us and we will assure you a desirable part of St. Louis, call at my office and get information.

G. R. MORGAN, 719 Chestnut St.

WESTMINSTER PLACE.

800x160 North Side; 300x150 South Side. All of the above property being between 10th and 11th Streets. The property will be sold to the highest bidder at a public auction, and the same will be sold to the purchaser.

M. K. AND T. TRUST CO. will buy your lot and build for you a fine home for you to pay for in monthly installments.

Telephone 752.

$75 per foot will buy that choice corner lot, 125x128 feet, on Channing avenue and Chestnut street. Apply to

TAAFFE & GAY,

710 Chestnut St.

For Sale--Bargain.

Must be sold. Unimproved lots. Marsons Av., corner of 11th and 12th Streets, 100x150 feet, same and more. Offer $100 per foot.

Richard H. Stinde, 508 Chestnut.

LOTS IN

CHAMBERLAIN PARK.

The handsomest home place around the city and prices reduced; if you want a lot come in and see us. "We will furnish a lot, and build you a home on monthly installments." New houses now being built.

UNION AND PAGE AVS.,

Northeast Corner.

WESTMINSTER PLACE.

We can offer 100 feet on the north side, having also a frontage of 274x171 on Whittier Street.

A capital or business building, 100x150 feet, same.

RICHARD H. STINDE, 508 Chestnut.

LINDELL AVENUE GROUND.

We can offer 100 feet on the north side, having also a frontage of 274x171 on Whittier Street.

A capital or business building, 100x150 feet, same.

RICHARD H. STINDE, 508 Chestnut.

3958 LEE AV.

Some desire a good home for a small amount of money will do to exchange house; it is a good, comfortable and roomy house, stable, chicken house, etc. Call and see owner or

E. S. GUIGNON, 804 Chestnut St.

DON'T fail to attend

Rosedale Heights Auction Sale,

Saturday, June 15, 1889. For information, plats and free excursion tickets apply to

SAM T. RATHELL, GEO. B. MORGAN,

708 CHESTNUT ST.

GRATIOT.

Frisco Railroad, 6 miles, 4¢ fare. We have a few lots left which we will sell at auction prices: $6 to $9 per foot.

OPPOSITE

CLIFTON HEIGHTS.

30 acres of high, level and beautiful land well adapted for subdivision. For Price and Terms Apply to

E. S. WARNER REAL ESTATE CO.,

304 N. 8th St.

SHALER HEIGHTS.

On the Frisco Line, one-quarter mile east of Glendale Depot; bounded by the Big Bend, Rock Hill and Intercity roads. This plot has been subdivided into 100 lots, each 100x150 feet, and is offered private sale at low figures and accommodating terms.

For plan and full particulars apply to

ADAM BORCH & CO.,

207 N. 8th St.

JENNINGS HEIGHTS.

Lot in this subdivision can be purchased for a very small sum, but we are not surprised, or indeed, any other property in St. Louis deedless call upon JOHN E. V.

JOHN F. STORM.

SUBURBAN PROPERTY FOR SALE.

$1,700. 4 ROOMS. 100 FEET

This is a pretty house and nice a lot as at handsome

Gratiot; a block from the depot. Call on J. Himes or Gratiot, or BRADLEY & CO.,

719 Chestnut St.

ROSEDALE AUCTION SALE!

Saturday, June 15, 1889.

Special train from Union Depot at 3 o'clock p. m.

Don't forget. Free ride! Free lunch! Come!

40 ACRES FOR $6,000.

$3,000 cash, balance on time if desired. This is the choice piece of land in the vicinity, about two miles west of Forest Park, near Greenwood Station.

Look at it, and judge for yourself.

FRANZ & TONTRUP,

626 Chestnut St.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.

FOR SALE--In answering advertisements under this head mention the Post-Dispatch.

AUCTION SALE!

In partition of income producing real estate of the party or parties.

At East Front Door of Court-House,

12 O'Clock M., Tuesday, June 11, 1889.

Stores No. 709-711 N. Main Street.

All stores on south side of Market street, from Main to Second street.

VALLE REYBURN,

Special Commissioner,

509 Olive Street.

AMERICANS IN MEXICO.

Ex-Minister E. W. Bragg on the Mexican Trade.

For several days Gen. E. W. Bragg has been visiting Capt. Loyd G. Harris. Gen. Bragg

during the war commanded the famous Iron

Brigade in which Capt. Harris was an officer.

To a Post-DISPATCH reporter Gen. Bragg said: "I am on my way home from Mexico and am staying in the United States for a year or two. I left many friends in the City of Mexico, and shall remember my sojourn in that country for many years to come."

He said he had been acting as a secretary to the Mexican Minister of War.

He said he had been acting as a secretary to the Mexican Minister of War.

He said he had been acting as a secretary to the Mexican Minister of War.

He said he had been acting as a secretary to the Mexican Minister of War.

He said he had been acting as a secretary to the Mexican Minister of War.

He said he had been acting as a secretary to the Mexican Minister of War.

He said he had been acting as a secretary to the Mexican Minister of War.

He said he had been acting as a secretary to the Mexican Minister of War.

He said he had been acting as a secretary to the Mexican Minister of War.

He said he had been acting as a secretary to the Mexican Minister of War.

He said he had been acting as a

secretary to the Mexican Minister of War.

IE AMATEUR ATHLETES

NOTABLES WHO WILL PARTICIPATE IN THE GAMES TO-DAY.

Jemmy's Chances With The Marine—Prince the Pugilistic Parade—The Berkeley Club's Secession—Killer Ready for the Road—Harvard's Night in Fine Fettle—Kilrain Wins the Tops—Local and General Sports.

His afternoon at Sportman's Park the Missouri Amateur Athletic Club holds its fifth annual spring meeting and it promises to be the largest and most successful event of the kind ever given in St. Louis. Not only are the amateur athletes entered in the various events on the programme, but some of the most noted amateurs in the country will also compete. Among those who will be seen are Malcolm W. Ford, the champion all-round amateur athlete of America, who came all the way from New York to participate in the meeting. Another noted New York athlete who is here to compete is Mr. M. Mackdernott of the Manhattan Athletic Club. George Kendall, the amateur champion sprinter of Nebraska, is here from Omaha, and Mr. E. Dutton and Ed. Y. of Omaha.

The Bostonians will be seen in several events, and the other athletes from the Lakeside village who will compete are George Riddle, James Price, W. F. Sauer, Wm. Skilling, F. W. Gorse, H. Hathaway, F. K. Henderson, John Angus and M. Kennedy. Edmund Brendamour, of the Cincinnati gymnasium, is here to compete in the light-weight Greco-Roman wrestling match.

The sports will commence at 3:30 p.m. and there will be sixteen events, as follows: One-hundred yard handicap, run in five heats, in which there are to be 29 starters; 100-yard run for members who have never won a race, 8 entries; one mile handicap, 5 entries; 100-yard dash, 5 entries; 100 yards, 5 entries; Greco-Roman wrestling for light-weights, 4 entries; 440 yards, 10 entries; 100 yards, 8 entries; second best of the Greco-Roman wrestling, one mile handicap, 5 entries; running broad jump, 4 entries; throwing the 16-pound hammer, 4 entries; 100 yards, 10 entries; 220 yards, 7 entries; 330 yards hurdle race, handicap, 7 entries; final bout of the Greco-Roman wrestling, 440-yard obstacle race, handicap, 5 entries; 100 yards, 10 entries; the events filled remarkably well and the sport ought to be excellent. It is should run in excellent condition providing the weather clears up by 1:30 p.m. and the sun comes out, with the hours of the day on the grounds, the time is sufficient to offset any rain. The officers of the day are: James A. St. John, referee; J. E. White, J. B. Kilian, J. E. Kilian, A. Daffy and Capt. C. W. Bellairs; judges; Wm. M. Brewster, S. R. Rides, of course; Aug. H. Mungo, Charles Heiman and M. E. Wahler, time-keepers; D. Lawson Dick, John C. G. George and George L. Jones, official handicappers. Western Amateur Athletic Association, and Daniel H. Wilson, official manager. A. A. A. A. and the weather the attendance will unquestionably be the largest ever seen at an athletic meeting in this city.

The Berkeley Secession.

By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The athletic situation appears to be constantly changing. It would seem that the National Association was the gainer in the latest move upon the athletic board.

The Berkeley Athletic Club from the American Athletic Union has a serious blow to the latter body. The Pastime Athletic Club left to the parades, races and runs, Salsbury offers other attractions on the dates named, which consist of base ball games between crack amateur teams, an exhibition of the Florida Club and a great display of fire-works at night. The races will number and are as follows:

1. One-mile bicycle; open. 2. One-mile national Division champion; open only to L. A. W. members.

3. One-mile bicycle handicap.

4. One-mile Missouri Division champion.

5. One-mile safety handicap.

6. Team race; open; three men in each team; 100 yards.

7. One-mile novice.

8. One-mile safety; open.

9. One-mile safety; open.

10. One-mile safety; open.

11. One-mile safety; open.

12. One-mile safety; open.

13. One-mile safety; open.

14. One-mile safety; open.

15. One-mile safety; open.

16. One-mile safety; open.

17. One-mile safety; open.

18. One-mile safety; open.

19. One-mile safety; open.

20. One-mile safety; open.

21. One-mile safety; open.

22. One-mile safety; open.

23. One-mile safety; open.

24. One-mile safety; open.

25. One-mile safety; open.

26. One-mile safety; open.

27. One-mile safety; open.

28. One-mile safety; open.

29. One-mile safety; open.

30. One-mile safety; open.

31. One-mile safety; open.

32. One-mile safety; open.

33. One-mile safety; open.

34. One-mile safety; open.

35. One-mile safety; open.

36. One-mile safety; open.

37. One-mile safety; open.

38. One-mile safety; open.

39. One-mile safety; open.

40. One-mile safety; open.

41. One-mile safety; open.

42. One-mile safety; open.

43. One-mile safety; open.

44. One-mile safety; open.

45. One-mile safety; open.

46. One-mile safety; open.

47. One-mile safety; open.

48. One-mile safety; open.

49. One-mile safety; open.

50. One-mile safety; open.

51. One-mile safety; open.

52. One-mile safety; open.

53. One-mile safety; open.

54. One-mile safety; open.

55. One-mile safety; open.

56. One-mile safety; open.

57. One-mile safety; open.

58. One-mile safety; open.

59. One-mile safety; open.

60. One-mile safety; open.

61. One-mile safety; open.

62. One-mile safety; open.

63. One-mile safety; open.

64. One-mile safety; open.

65. One-mile safety; open.

66. One-mile safety; open.

67. One-mile safety; open.

68. One-mile safety; open.

69. One-mile safety; open.

70. One-mile safety; open.

71. One-mile safety; open.

72. One-mile safety; open.

73. One-mile safety; open.

74. One-mile safety; open.

75. One-mile safety; open.

76. One-mile safety; open.

77. One-mile safety; open.

78. One-mile safety; open.

79. One-mile safety; open.

80. One-mile safety; open.

81. One-mile safety; open.

82. One-mile safety; open.

83. One-mile safety; open.

84. One-mile safety; open.

85. One-mile safety; open.

86. One-mile safety; open.

87. One-mile safety; open.

88. One-mile safety; open.

89. One-mile safety; open.

90. One-mile safety; open.

91. One-mile safety; open.

92. One-mile safety; open.

93. One-mile safety; open.

94. One-mile safety; open.

95. One-mile safety; open.

96. One-mile safety; open.

97. One-mile safety; open.

98. One-mile safety; open.

99. One-mile safety; open.

100. One-mile safety; open.

101. One-mile safety; open.

102. One-mile safety; open.

103. One-mile safety; open.

104. One-mile safety; open.

105. One-mile safety; open.

106. One-mile safety; open.

107. One-mile safety; open.

108. One-mile safety; open.

109. One-mile safety; open.

110. One-mile safety; open.

111. One-mile safety; open.

112. One-mile safety; open.

113. One-mile safety; open.

114. One-mile safety; open.

115. One-mile safety; open.

116. One-mile safety; open.

117. One-mile safety; open.

118. One-mile safety; open.

119. One-mile safety; open.

120. One-mile safety; open.

121. One-mile safety; open.

122. One-mile safety; open.

123. One-mile safety; open.

124. One-mile safety; open.

125. One-mile safety; open.

126. One-mile safety; open.

127. One-mile safety; open.

128. One-mile safety; open.

129. One-mile safety; open.

130. One-mile safety; open.

131. One-mile safety; open.

132. One-mile safety; open.

133. One-mile safety; open.

134. One-mile safety; open.

135. One-mile safety; open.

136. One-mile safety; open.

137. One-mile safety; open.

138. One-mile safety; open.

139. One-mile safety; open.

140. One-mile safety; open.

141. One-mile safety; open.

142. One-mile safety; open.

143. One-mile safety; open.

144. One-mile safety; open.

145. One-mile safety; open.

146. One-mile safety; open.

147. One-mile safety; open.

148. One-mile safety; open.

149. One-mile safety; open.

150. One-mile safety; open.

151. One

OSSIP FROM GOTHAM.

JAMES E. TEAGUE, THE FRIEND OF GRANT AND HARRISON.

One of Philadelphia's Most Progressive Citizens—The Man Who Inspired Enthusiasm at the Inauguration of President Harrison—Dr. J. Leonard Cornings Success—Two of Our Diplomatic Representatives.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Imagine a man of great height and size gorgeously arrayed in a cream colored spring overcoat, tight-fitting trousers of a splendid stripe, a magnificent brock coat of blue broad cloth buttoned over his coat. A small yellow rose in his button-hole, a cane with an elephant's hilt for its head, an enormous emerald scarf-pin, and an expansive row of dazzling teeth that smile like the sunshine alights on the just and the unjust.

"If I hadn't stood up at Washington at the critical moment," says he, "the Harrison inauguration would have been a failure. The cortège was moving slowly along Pennsylvania avenue to the Capitol amid universal silence. At once I sprang into the breach. I jumped up and called out in a clear, resonant voice: 'Three cheers for Benjamin Harrison,' and then they tore the whiskers."

"Teague," says the President, as he eye beamed with pleasure, "Come into the carriage. I'll make room for you."

"But I was too modest for that. Why, do you know I hadn't seen Grant since Appomattox, when I held his horse while he signed Gen. Lee's capitulation papers, until one day when I heard the General, not long before the end, was alone and almost forgotten up in his home on Sixty-sixth street. I went and handed in my card at the door. The attendant didn't want to let me pass. Said I: 'Is Gen. Grant in? If so I must see him.' At that moment I heard the thud of a cane and the rattling of a top-hat above the head of the stairs. Then my old comrade, at the head of a century, came over the balusters. 'Is that my old friend Teague?' said he, 'or do my ears deceive me? If that's you, James, come right up here. I want to see you.'

Maj. Teague is, beyond a doubt, one of the most interesting characters in the city which has long failed to appreciate him. Were he to come to New York and marshal the colored vote, the colored man would not long knock in vain for admission to the salary lists of the Custom-house and Post-office. The Major would shoulder the doors down. This was Maj. James H. Teague, who is, unquestionably, one of Philadelphia's most remarkable and progressive citizens and who is a wide-awake community man, New York, where distinction is accorded a man as soon as it is evidently deserved, would be a landmark of the city, as much an object of general interest as Mayor Grant, David Dinkins, or Gen. Grant himself. Maj. Teague has as smooth and impressive a flow of language as a man may hear in a journey over two continents. He is now in the prime of his powers, and if he would but hear the latest stories about President Harrison and the most vivid and most interesting anecdotes of the Major's ancestry, the immortal Toussaint L'ouverture of Hayti, it is make not to him the Major.

"What ails you, James? You have just come back from Washington. I could have had any Federal office I wanted in Philadelphia; but I did not. I have given up my own personal business; I have declined to go into a number of interesting and trust companies. I am now entirely occupied in administering on my grandfather's estate. If the Major's father left him more than $2,000 and a pig he was lucky. But look at the man."

Almost any of these fine days on the avenue he may be seen strolling himself in the fashionable 4 o'clock sunshine, a slender, wiry man, whose keen blue eye and nervously flushed face make him look as something beyond the average man. It is Dr. Leonard Cornings, who, while scarcely on the shady side of forty, has yet leaped to the front rank of the most brilliant men in the city. Dr. Cornings speaks as one having authority on his specialty of nervous diseases, and has written one weighty treatise on the subject for every man in his majority. The doctor's beard, a la Henri Quatre, is a sole reminder in his personal appearance of the man he was when he studied at German universities and walked the various hospitals in Berlin, Paris, London, and New York. Dr. Cornings, the late Dr. Marion Sims, and the young Dr. Cushing, at the American Embassy and he never forgotten. When a year earlier he found the poor minister in his office in the East Side slums, he took him to his own office as assistant, and introduced him to the professors and students. Besides attending to the arduous duties of his practice and his writings, Dr. Cornings has found time to be a popular lecturer, delivering innumerable lectures throughout the country, invent several valuable surgical devices, which the etiquette of the profession prohibits publishing, and a number of original contributions of his own to the medical literature of our hospital.

The Young People's Association of Union M. E. Church, corner Garrison and Locust, will be singing this evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the North Presbyterian Church will have an excursion to-morrow.

The TipTop Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

The TipTop property has been leased to Mr. Fred Chopin, soprano; Mr. Henry Walker, alto; Mr. E. W. Stamm, tenor, and Mr. Geo. H. Wissman, baritone. In the evening at 7:45 the full Cathedral choral service will be rendered.

The Magnificat will be chanted to the first ending of the fifth Gregorian Tone. The number of the organists will be increased.

The TipTop and Continental Chorus.

THE BOOK WORLD.

AMERICAN LAW OF ADMINISTRATION
BY JUDGE WOERNER.

valuable Addition to Legal Literature.—A Very Comprehensive and Able Work. The "Century" and Other June Issues—Book News and Gossips—Books Received.

NOTICE ON THE AMERICAN LAW OF ADMINISTRATION. By the Probate Court of the City of St. Louis. In volumes. Boston: Little, Brown & Co. 1889.

THE due administration of estates of deceased persons has, since the earliest days, been a momentous problem in the law of property, legislation and jurisprudence. The common law, with its many deficiencies increasing with progressive civilization and advancing commerce, rise to statutory enactments, compose the exigencies of modern communities, so statutory enactments, often deficient in themselves and varying with the respective laws in which they were passed, have in turn been variously construed, and the source of considerable difficulty and uncertainty. Like certain other branches of the law which a national uniformity has been sought for many years by the bench and bar of the country, the differences existing among States in the law of the devolution and administration of decedents' estates still exist, the reason therefor being distressingly obscure and enigmatical; hence, the want of agreement for a general treatise on the law of administration as applicable in the American States, which might create a tendency to nationalize these differences into one harmonious system.

Several able treatises on this subject have heretofore been published, but none of them satisfied the universal desire for a more comprehensive view of the law of the whole country than that published by the author. When, therefore, nearly eighteen years ago, Judge Woerner began to collect the materials which have recently produced a most valuable addition to legal literature, he undertook an extremely arduous task, and the result is a work which will unquestionably be recognized everywhere as a true guide in all matters pertaining to administration or probate law. The peculiar fitness of Judge Woerner to be the author of such an excellent work must be and is conceded. As Judge of the Probate Court of this city for the past eighteen years or more without interruption he has had such means of practical observation and experience as are seldom afforded to any just or author. The literary product of his judicial labors is not, as may be said of many other law books, "Gutenberg-made," but it is the fruit of a faithful, zealous and long devotion to the office which the people of this city have so willingly committed to his care. His life work has its monument in his "American Law of Administration."

The work covers the whole field of administration with scarcely a possible exception, and includes the consideration of subjects not discussed or treated by former writers. Only a slight conception of the magnitude of the work can be gleaned from a cursory recital of the subjects treated. Beginning with an introduction on the nature of property and the principles determining its devolution, the work takes up in detail the subjects of the devolution of property on its owner's death, as determined, first, by the act of the owner by testamentary disposition, or by gifts executed in anticipation of immediate death, and secondly, by operation of law; the instrumentalities affecting the devolution by means of established tribunals, and executors and administrators; the devolution to the legal representatives; the duties of personal representatives in acquiring possession of and managing the estate; priority among executors and administrators; the rights of creditors and demands and the common law and American statutory systems of paying debts; legacies and devises; the application of assets to the payment of debts; the liability of the real estate for debts and the relative liability of assets to creditors and legatees; accounting and distribution of assets; executors and administrators; the close of the administration and distribution to legatees and next of kin, and the particular acts of administration.

All of these subjects are thoroughly and elaborately treated from the standpoints of the common and statutory law, with an ample array of authorities, which are requisite to a just construction or application of the law. The references to statutes are not confined to those of any particular State or States, but comprise the statutes of all the States of the Union, with citations of authorities of the courts of the respective states, of other text books, in matters of the true interpretation of the statutes wherever necessary. The author has also endeavored to state and announce his own views on different topics in his endeavor to relieve courts and lawyers from the trouble of which our unfortunate differences among judicial determinations. The administration laws of the several States are thus fully and clearly explained, and the many divergencies compared, contrasted, and commented upon, all forcibly illustrating how beneficially should the administration laws of the several States be made to conform to one another into a common code concurring to the best interests of the nation, irrespective of statehood or statehood.

The work will be well appreciated, not in any particular State or States, but wherever decedents' estates are administered according to legislative provisions and judicial decisions.

MORE JUNE MAGAZINES.

The "Century" and Other Books Notes and Gossips.

Mr. Kennan, in the June "Century," begins his account of the most important investigations made by him into the exile system, viz., his visit to the Convict Mines at Kara. The article is more profusely illustrated than most. Two striking pictures are those of "Convicts at Work in one of the Kara Gold Mines," and "Convicts Returning at Night from the Mines." The frontispieces of this number of the "Century" are two famous French artist, Corot, whose work has had such immense influence on the art of the world. The author of the article on the Kara Mines is an authority on the subject. The article is by Mr. W. H. DeKay, and, along with the letter-press is another portrait of "Corot at Work," drawn from a picture in the Louvre. A number of reproductions of Corot's paintings are also given. An article by an English writer on the Bloodhounds of St. Petersburg, and the methods of torture which are the terror from his reputation. He seems to be a very different sort of dog from that which would indicate, and his intelligence is absolutely非凡. DeKay continues his Irish papers with a curiously illustrated article on "Early Heros of the Irish Free State." An article on "Work for Women," by Mrs. Helen Campbell, describes especially the Young Women's Christian Association building of New York and the methods of work of the organization. "An American Amateur Astronomer" is an illustrated sketch of the career of Mr. Burnham, of the Yerkes Observatory. The "Century" is continued, and the usual quota of short stories, poems, etc., are present.

June "Vale Tudo" opens with "Venus and the Moon," showing how the diversion can be caused by the sun to get to the Queen during the diplomatic interview. The Duchess, therefore, escaped the crowding in the saloons, and, having come in by the side entrance, she was able to get to the Queen during the diplomatic interview. The Queen has given the Dowager Duchess of Marlborough the privilege of "the entree" for life.

Showing as it always is, and sustains its high quality this month, opening with an unusually good article on "Student Life at the University of Michigan," which is especially interesting on account of its composition by W. H. Ballou, an entertaining account of the home life of the great author. "The Home Sketch of the New York club of that name. Lieut.-Col. S. E. Gilman of the United States Cavalry has written a most interesting account of "Some Daily Applications of Electricity." The third chapter on "The Great States," by Col. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes," paper and lawn tennis as its topic and will prove very interesting to the many devotees of the game. Fiction and poetry are well represented.

The June "Home-Maker," Marion Harland's magazine, is full of good things for the house, both domestic and otherwise, and besides household matters furnishes much excellent reading.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's newest novel, "The Golden Goblet," will be published this month. Charles Scribner's Sons will publish this month a story entitled "The Wrong Way" by Mr. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes." Oates is said to deal mainly with the adventures of a young man in his attempts to secure the fruits of a fortune in his education. Mr. Fiske's new book enables the pool to be protected by copyright.

Mr. Lowell has written a new poem—a long poem, "The Oracle of the Goldfishes." It will appear in the "Atlantic" some time this summer.

The "Home-Maker," Marion Harland's magazine, is full of good things for the house, both domestic and otherwise, and besides household matters furnishes much excellent reading.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's newest novel, "The Golden Goblet," will be published this month. Charles Scribner's Sons will publish this month a story entitled "The Wrong Way" by Mr. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes." Oates is said to deal mainly with the adventures of a young man in his attempts to secure the fruits of a fortune in his education. Mr. Fiske's new book enables the pool to be protected by copyright.

Mr. Lowell has written a new poem—a long poem, "The Oracle of the Goldfishes." It will appear in the "Atlantic" some time this summer.

The "Home-Maker," Marion Harland's magazine, is full of good things for the house, both domestic and otherwise, and besides household matters furnishes much excellent reading.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's newest novel, "The Golden Goblet," will be published this month. Charles Scribner's Sons will publish this month a story entitled "The Wrong Way" by Mr. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes." Oates is said to deal mainly with the adventures of a young man in his attempts to secure the fruits of a fortune in his education. Mr. Fiske's new book enables the pool to be protected by copyright.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's newest novel, "The Golden Goblet," will be published this month. Charles Scribner's Sons will publish this month a story entitled "The Wrong Way" by Mr. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes." Oates is said to deal mainly with the adventures of a young man in his attempts to secure the fruits of a fortune in his education. Mr. Fiske's new book enables the pool to be protected by copyright.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Book Notes and Gossips.

AILMENTS OF CHILDREN.

PARTICULARLY THE SUMMER COMPLAINTS OF THE LITTLE FOLK.

The Sad Results That May Follow Carelessness When Children's Health is Concerned—Proper Food and Care—The Critical Period of Infantile Life.

[Written for the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.]

HE season of the year is fast approaching to which physicians whose practice among young children is at all extensive look forward with dread anticipation of what they witness from summer to summer, when they are called upon to treat innumerable cases of the so-called "summer complaints" of young infants, a class of troubles which is directly responsible for the extreme mortality which prevails among children during the heated term, and which have been the cause of many deaths, and even of many households which but a few hours before were in possession of that most valuable of all jewels—a mother's baby. Much has been written, and much discussion has taken place among medical men, particularly during late years, as to the best means of treating these different troubles, and the one inevitable conclusion has been arrived at that until the general public can be made to understand fully the nature of these troubles and the proper hygienic conduct of nursery life, that each succeeding year must necessarily witness the same terrible and useless slaughter of the innocent and helpless, the thought of which is unutterable.

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's newest novel, "The Golden Goblet," will be published this month. Charles Scribner's Sons will publish this month a story entitled "The Wrong Way" by Mr. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes." Oates is said to deal mainly with the adventures of a young man in his attempts to secure the fruits of a fortune in his education. Mr. Fiske's new book enables the pool to be protected by copyright.

Mr. Lowell has written a new poem—a long poem, "The Oracle of the Goldfishes." It will appear in the "Atlantic" some time this summer.

The June "Home-Maker," Marion Harland's magazine, is full of good things for the house, both domestic and otherwise, and besides household matters furnishes much excellent reading.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's newest novel, "The Golden Goblet," will be published this month. Charles Scribner's Sons will publish this month a story entitled "The Wrong Way" by Mr. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes." Oates is said to deal mainly with the adventures of a young man in his attempts to secure the fruits of a fortune in his education. Mr. Fiske's new book enables the pool to be protected by copyright.

Mr. Lowell has written a new poem—a long poem, "The Oracle of the Goldfishes." It will appear in the "Atlantic" some time this summer.

The June "Home-Maker," Marion Harland's magazine, is full of good things for the house, both domestic and otherwise, and besides household matters furnishes much excellent reading.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's newest novel, "The Golden Goblet," will be published this month. Charles Scribner's Sons will publish this month a story entitled "The Wrong Way" by Mr. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes." Oates is said to deal mainly with the adventures of a young man in his attempts to secure the fruits of a fortune in his education. Mr. Fiske's new book enables the pool to be protected by copyright.

Mr. Lowell has written a new poem—a long poem, "The Oracle of the Goldfishes." It will appear in the "Atlantic" some time this summer.

The June "Home-Maker," Marion Harland's magazine, is full of good things for the house, both domestic and otherwise, and besides household matters furnishes much excellent reading.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's newest novel, "The Golden Goblet," will be published this month. Charles Scribner's Sons will publish this month a story entitled "The Wrong Way" by Mr. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes." Oates is said to deal mainly with the adventures of a young man in his attempts to secure the fruits of a fortune in his education. Mr. Fiske's new book enables the pool to be protected by copyright.

Mr. Lowell has written a new poem—a long poem, "The Oracle of the Goldfishes." It will appear in the "Atlantic" some time this summer.

The June "Home-Maker," Marion Harland's magazine, is full of good things for the house, both domestic and otherwise, and besides household matters furnishes much excellent reading.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's newest novel, "The Golden Goblet," will be published this month. Charles Scribner's Sons will publish this month a story entitled "The Wrong Way" by Mr. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes." Oates is said to deal mainly with the adventures of a young man in his attempts to secure the fruits of a fortune in his education. Mr. Fiske's new book enables the pool to be protected by copyright.

Mr. Lowell has written a new poem—a long poem, "The Oracle of the Goldfishes." It will appear in the "Atlantic" some time this summer.

The June "Home-Maker," Marion Harland's magazine, is full of good things for the house, both domestic and otherwise, and besides household matters furnishes much excellent reading.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's newest novel, "The Golden Goblet," will be published this month. Charles Scribner's Sons will publish this month a story entitled "The Wrong Way" by Mr. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes." Oates is said to deal mainly with the adventures of a young man in his attempts to secure the fruits of a fortune in his education. Mr. Fiske's new book enables the pool to be protected by copyright.

Mr. Lowell has written a new poem—a long poem, "The Oracle of the Goldfishes." It will appear in the "Atlantic" some time this summer.

The June "Home-Maker," Marion Harland's magazine, is full of good things for the house, both domestic and otherwise, and besides household matters furnishes much excellent reading.

Book Notes and Gossips.

Another new book by John Fiske is announced for early publication by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is entitled "The Beginnings of New England," and contains the substance of lectures given in many cities but never printed.

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's newest novel, "The Golden Goblet," will be published this month. Charles Scribner's Sons will publish this month a story entitled "The Wrong Way" by Mr. W. H. Oates, on the "Great Lakes." Oates is said to deal mainly with the adventures of a young man in his attempts to secure the fruits of a fortune in his education. Mr. Fiske's new book enables the pool to be protected by copyright.

Mr. Lowell has written a new poem—a long poem, "The Oracle of the Goldfishes." It will appear in the "Atlantic" some time this summer.

The June "Home-Maker," Marion Harland's magazine, is full of good things for the house, both domestic and otherwise, and besides household matters furnishes much excellent reading.

Book Notes and Goss

A AND MINSTRELS.

ATTRACtions PROMISED ST. LOUIS—RE FOR THE PRESENT WEEK.

"The Queen's Lace Handkerchief" at the Kensington Minstrels—"Faust," at Music Hall—"The "Said Faust" Engagement—Coulisse Chat.

THE topy-turvy condition of the Mikado's kingdom as it appears to Gilbert framed in Sullivan's quaint and melodious measures furnished plenty of bright entertainment at the Cave last week.

The success of the first week of the season should be gratifying to the management there. The weather has allowed the performances to be given out of doors and in doors. Monday and Tuesday was the temperature so low as to make the garden uncomfortable. The performance of the company was clear and ringing, nearly every member of the casting excellent work. The organization has been strengthened by the addition of several new members. Chief among the recruits is J. C. Taylor, the tenor of the Carletoners Co., who will relieve Mr. McCreary until the latter's voice recovers its clearness and tone. The opera for next week will be that stirring and melodious work "The Queen's Lace Handkerchief" for which an excellent cast is promised. The Alto Vincent as Queen, Leslie Gilman as Irene, Maudie as Mabel, the Marchioness, Carrie Roger as the Page, Marion Langdon as the Master of Ceremonies, Harold Blake as King, J. G. Bell as Premier, Ferris Hartman as Sancho Panza, Jay C. Taylor as Cervantes, Ralph de Mosa, Louis Carleberg, M. M. Parker, W. Farday as Ministers, E. G. Shearer as the Dancing Master and Wm. Dixon as Antonio.

The garden has been transformed into another and far more attractive resort by Mr. McCreary. All the obtrusive posts in the auditorium have been removed and the lights are swung from the roof of the pavilion, which has been erected, and will be covered with water-proof tarpaulin. Many other improvements have been made for the comfort of the public.

Manager George McManus has completed all arrangements for the opening of the regular season of the Kensington.

A comfortable and attractive stage now covers the space in front of the lake in full view and within good hearing distance of the grand stand. The garden has been improved in various ways, and everything necessary for comfort and pleasure of the public has been provided.

The opening attraction will be the Kensington Minstrels, who have been in the country for the past month, singing in the country.

They will give a programme which it is promised will be filled with fun and melody. In the clever performers are the Clipper Quartette from Thatcher, Primrose &amp; West's, the Minstrels, and the

John F. Curran, Ward, Al Hart and W.

White, and also the Manhattan Quartette, composed of J. M. Woods, J. F. Davis, W.

Hawkins, and G. Pease.

There will also be Hawkins and Collins in hairy specialties; McIntyre and Heath of the mineral company; the Hargrove and the Hargrove, the Hargrove Brothers' Minstrels; Chas. Seaman, the original Sime Dempsey and John G. Harrington. There will be music, sketches, speeches and various entertainments.

The St. Louis Cable &amp; Railroad has prepared to handle the visitors comfortably, and will have a pleasant time for all through the suburbs to the grounds for a nominal fare.

Hercules with Faust" was first brought out successfully in Paris in 1869 and afterwards was produced at Fisk's Opera-House in New York with success. It is an unusual and melodious drama and will be introduced by S. B. Baker, the Chicago manager, for a spectacular operatic burlesque for the summer.

The adaptation of the original opera to the American taste will be presented at Music Hall next week, on June 15, and will be given by an amateur company of sixty-five persons.

The burlesque is in three acts, introducing Dr. Faust's boarding school, the Devil's schoolroom, and the Devil's school, and with two tableaux in the third act representing the bridal chamber of Marquise and the palace of the King.

With the seven acts and statuettes dauphins of arm are disclosed. The work will be produced spectaculatively with a number of special effects, including a grand scene in the house where Samuel J. Tilden lived for many years. It is a house filled with curiosities, from old armchairs to old books and manuscripts.

There are rare paintings on the book-shelves, a collection of autograph letters, and other unique and priceless. And I also found her still handsome and overbearing with good humor, and apparently as fresh, vivacious and attractive as ever.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

When the people of Spain, very sensibly, with a view to future union, offered their throne to the late King of Portugal, Ferdinand, he preferred the comfort of his mountain palace and the company of his American wife to the task of governing a nation with which he was not entirely familiar.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

There is in Lisbon a famous picture of the Archangel Michael and the devil disputing for the crown of Portugal; but the contentions for the crown of Spain have been limited to members of the human race.

The map of Europe, no matter how well engraved and printed, is not popular in Portugal, and is rarely exhibited. It seems like injustice to accord so small and obscure a corner on the map to a nation that is much greater than Spain or Russia.

THE POST-DISPATCH-PAGES 25 TO 28.

ST. LOUIS, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 1889.

A CORNER IN SHAWNEE

BY HENRY CLEWS.

[Written for the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH. Copyrighted, 1889. All Rights Reserved.]

CHAPTER I.—AN EARLY PASSION.

HAT has become of Daniel Hardy?"

People living in Posket could tell, if it ever occurred to them that any body should ask, Hardy's re-appearance in his native village seemed so natural, so evidently sensible, the mystery attached to him.

"Well, Dan'l, I'se pose you 'n' Annie," I'git other. It was generally believed in Posket that they were in love.

Daniel had been in the post-office when Annie took the stage to go away. They merely said "Good-bye" to each other there, but when she drove the clumsy vehicle in the distance, and Daniel still stood staring at it, the postmaster said, with that kindly impertinence found under euphemistic phrases in the city:

"Well, Dan'l, I'se pose you 'n' Annie," I'git

Daniel started, and his brown cheeks reddened as of old. He thrust his hands deep into his pockets, and turning with a scowl:

"You go to thunder, Mr. Sparks!"

Then he walked abruptly away, and Mr. Sparks with a smile, slowly into his store and guessed that "Dan'l" was uncommonly deep, struck with Squire Stockwell's little-known and unscrupulous ways.

At this time Daniel Hardy was twenty years old, a good young man who had always been a good, strong, awkward man, or was there an explanation for any kind of physical labor, and he was a good, strong, awkward man.

The village of Posket, where Daniel was characteristic of him, and with it a headlessness of purpose that even his high-school education could not stamp out.

Not that bankers, brokers and the 'borders of speculators, whose shrewd operations serve the country at large as well as themselves and even better by keeping values comparatively stable, interrupt their buying and selling to gossip about one of their own number. There is too much to talk about on the street to permit of idle remarks.

and in the evenings at clubs and hotels the deals of the day and the growth or decline of enterprises offer subjects for conversation that command attention to the exclusion of prettier topics.

But Daniel Hardy?

Ever and again something occurs that suggests his unique figure and his interesting career, and then the question, "What has become of him?" is certain to be asked. That a man who evinced such extraordinary talent and gained so great success should abandon the field permanently and impossible in all except the very few who know the facts; and even they shrink from the truth with a kind of conviction that such a boy will return to the very whirl of speculation and set us all by the ears again with his schemes. Rare avis in terra indeed is he who once tastes the exciting cup of financial success and does not tempt again the demon of ruin that lurks at the bottom.

Who drinks often of this nectar must hold his desires and ambitions well in hand lest the passion of avarice be aroused; and those who elide the control of the monster find in the daily solution of monetary problems a keen enjoyment that will be folly to forego.

So there remains in the street an expectation of meeting Daniel Hardy again in the fierce contests of finance. For my part I am inclined to think that he will never again be seen, to which he has returned. I admit the possibility of an awakening of the desire to operate in the Exchange, but with all the facts of his remarkable career before me, the weight of probability seems to lie in the balance of inactivity. I purpose to make known these facts as concisely as may be. They have come to my knowledge from time to time, and it is only recently that the last link in the chain of events that make a complete story come into my possession. I shall refrain as much as possible from comments, so that when the story is told, the reader may make his own estimate of Hardy's character.

Thirty years ago Daniel was employed as a boy for a saw-mill in Posket, Vt. In his spare time he took root in the nature and for sunburned nature yields her harvests in the Green Mountain State only after a severe struggle, and even infantile hands are required for the work. Little knowledge had he of such things as are set down in books. A few years spent at the district school, when he was big enough to be in his mother's way, and not strong enough to be of service, had resulted in his acquiring a passable knowledge of the alphabet and various forms of mischief; and during his teens an occasional term at the winter session of the school to learn the rudiments of "fingering," and a certain ability to spell most words of two syllables and many of one. It was while he took root in the pastures of Posket that he first met Annie.

Awkward and clumsy at the best, he was utterly helpless when Annie Stockwell's blue eyes met his. They met each other at school during the long, hot summer months when they dozed over their primers and books, and when the teacher, Mrs. Dan, looked longer at the bench where Annie sat than at his book, but when she turned to him she was a comely girl, and doffed her cap before his face, and his blood shot through his sunburned cheeks. Oftentimes Annie found a big red apple or a yellow pear in her schoolbag, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, he looked steadily at the blackboard.

It seems that Annie was not as bashful as the teacher. She pleased him with her attention, and many little efforts tried to encourage him along the road that led to the schoolroom. The words of her mother, self, or, if it was impossible to escape her, hung his head and looked sheepishly at his hands. She had a bright, vivacious, impudent smile, and when she tried to smile her apparel across the school-room, for she was too bashful, you in the way of information, or otherwise, let me know.

"Thanks, Mr. Wellman," responded Daniel gravely. "I may call on you some day."

The time came, and you called on Daniel. He was invited into his office for effecting deals in various securities. He accepted some of the invitations and rejected others. From the time he became a member of the firm with whom he was associated, I wonder how he escaped ruin more than once. His conservatism never failed him, and he was safe with exterior was a tenacious intellect, wonderfully sharpened by contact with the world.

Mr. Wellman was a man of one who was studying one thing more than all else: Theodore Wellman's business habits. He learned what was in the books of his favorite stocks for speculation, through the newspapers, and omitted details unnecessary to mention here. As fast came the famous "Snowshoe" railroad deal.

The stock was safe, and the price at par to $10,000,000, but it ruled in the market at about 50.

It was one of the "chances" in which Mr. Wellman delighted to speculate. A selling list began in this stock one day, and ended down a full point when an observer on the floor of the Exchange became every block of it that was offered.

Still this obscure broker bought.

body began to rush for his Shawnee and this was soon the case from mouth to mouth.

It was at the close of the day's process it was quoted at 50. The next day movement continued, and leading among others was Mr. Wellman.

"Every effort was made to get the mysterious purchaser with and, as far as I know, of ing Shawnee was 115, with a record of more shares sold than were in existence.

At last, after a long search, he was ended in offering him a lot of stock from a distant city in special train.

Shawnee was taken.

to the point of despair. They had to get more stock with which to fulfill their en-ments to deliver. The obscure broker had to pay $100 for his shares. It meant ruin to many there were many suspensions, and there was the house of Theodore Wellman.

soon after the announcement a messenger hurried to him that Mr. Wellman had at his office a position for which he could be laid before him. He went over, and found others of his relatives associated with him, and he was led into a back room.

There sat Daniel Hardy, a man of 60, but there was an expression of fear on his face.

"It's me, Mr. Wellman," exclaimed Wellman.

"I'm here to stay," said Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

"We are in the same situation and taking with a groan into a chair he covered in face with his hands. Presently Hardy

spoke again.

"I understand that you have contracted to silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Hardy, "some of the sheets is in that set in the corner; practically all the rest is in the safe. I'll give you my note where I can get 'em when I want 'em."

If I understand it, that means that you have got to settle with me at my own figure. Ain't that it?"

"It is, Mr. Hardy," groaned Wellman.

"I'll pay," went on the speaker. "I'll pay you to get the rest delivered, 2,000 sheets to somebody for suthin', but I don't keer for 'em. Lemme see, I think you clever people have got to be paid for this, and that's all I want to say when I want 'em."

Wellman's power was a convulsive shudder. There was silence for a moment and then Hardy fairly shouted.

"Look up, Mr. Wellman," said the speculator.

"I understand that you have contracted to

silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

"We are in the same situation and taking with a groan into a chair he covered in face with his hands. Presently Hardy

spoke again.

"I understand that you have contracted to

silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

"We are in the same situation and taking with a groan into a chair he covered in face with his hands. Presently Hardy

spoke again.

"I understand that you have contracted to

silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

"We are in the same situation and taking with a groan into a chair he covered in face with his hands. Presently Hardy

spoke again.

"I understand that you have contracted to

silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

"We are in the same situation and taking with a groan into a chair he covered in face with his hands. Presently Hardy

spoke again.

"I understand that you have contracted to

silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

"We are in the same situation and taking with a groan into a chair he covered in face with his hands. Presently Hardy

spoke again.

"I understand that you have contracted to

silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

"We are in the same situation and taking with a groan into a chair he covered in face with his hands. Presently Hardy

spoke again.

"I understand that you have contracted to

silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

"We are in the same situation and taking with a groan into a chair he covered in face with his hands. Presently Hardy

spoke again.

"I understand that you have contracted to

silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

"We are in the same situation and taking with a groan into a chair he covered in face with his hands. Presently Hardy

spoke again.

"I understand that you have contracted to

silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

"We are in the same situation and taking with a groan into a chair he covered in face with his hands. Presently Hardy

spoke again.

"I understand that you have contracted to

silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

"We are in the same situation and taking with a groan into a chair he covered in face with his hands. Presently Hardy

spoke again.

"I understand that you have contracted to

silver about 2,000 more sheets of Shawnee

which was overbooked out of the stock book."

Wellman nodded.

"I'll pay," continued Wellman.

Hardy made no reply at once. He sat stock

still, looking straight at the speaker.

